Women and Power in Zimbabwe Carolyn Martin Shaw, 2015-10-30 The revolt against white rule in Rhodesia nurtured incipient local feminisms in women who imagined independence as a road to gender equity and economic justice But the country's rebirth as Zimbabwe and Robert Mugabe's rise to power dashed these hopes Using history literature participant observation and interviews Carolyn Martin Shaw surveys Zimbabwean feminisms from the colonial era to today She examines how actions as clearly disparate as baking scones for self protection carrying guns in the liberation and feeling morally superior to men represent sources of female empowerment She also presents the ways women across Zimbabwean society rural and urban professional and domestic accommodated or confronted post independence setbacks Finally Shaw offers perspectives on the ways contemporary Zimbabwean women depart from the prevailing view that feminism is a Western imposition having little to do with African women The result of thirty years of experience Women and Power in Zimbabwe addresses the promises of feminism and femininity for generations of African women
