Racial Formation In The United States 1960 199:

Racial Formation in the United States Michael Omi, Howard Winant, 1994 Discusses racial formation theory the idea that race is a constructed identity dependent upon social economic and political factors Multiculturalism in a Global Society Peter Kivisto, 2008-04-30 Multiculturalism in Global Society explores the concepts and debates surrounding the complex modern phenomenon of multiculturalism and its varied effects on the advanced industrial nations of the world With remarkable clarity and concision it focuses on the interrelated ties of ethnicity race and nationalism in a world where globalizing processes have made such ties increasingly important in economic political and cultural terms Students and scholars looking for the most up to date approach to understanding multiculturalism in a global perspective will find this to be an engaging penetrating and illuminating text Die windige Internationale Manuela Bojadžijev, 2008 Race, Whiteness, and Education Zeus Leonardo, 2009-05-12 In the colorblind era of Post Civil Rights America race is often wrongly thought to be irrelevant or at best a problem of racist individuals rather than a systemic condition to be confronted Race Whiteness and Education interrupts this dangerous assumption by reaffirming a critical appreciation of the central role that race and racism still play in schools and society Author Zeus Leonardo s conceptual engagement of race and whiteness asks questions about its origins its maintenance and envisages its future This book does not simply rehearse exhausted ideas on the relationship among race class and education but instead offers new ways of understanding how multiple social relations interact with one another and of their impact in thinking about a more genuine sense of multiculturalism By asking fundamental questions about whiteness in schools and society Race Whiteness and Education goes to the heart of race relations and the common sense understandings that sustain it thus painting a clearer picture of the changing face of racism

Landscape and Race in the United States Richard H. Schein, 2006 Landscape and Race in the United States is the definitive volume on racialized landscapes in the United States Edited by Richard Schein each essay is grounded in a particular location but all of the essays are informed by the theoretical vision that the cultural landscapes of America are infused with race and America s racial divide While featuring the black white divide the book also investigates other social landscapes including Chinatowns Latino landscapes in the Southwest and white suburban landscapes The essays are accessible and readable providing historical and contemporary coverage Working the Navajo Way Colleen M. O'Neill, 2005 O'Neill chronicles a history of Navajo labor that illuminates how cultural practices and values influenced what it meant to work for wages or to produce commodities for the marketplace Through accounts of Navajo coal miners weavers and those who left the reservation in search of wage work she explores the tension between making a living the Navajo way and working elsewhere BOOK JACKET Soziale Welt, 1990 Cultural Institutions of the Novel Deidre Lynch, William Beatty Warner, 1996 The story of the development of the novel its origin rise and increasing popularity as a narrative form in an ever expanding range of geographic and cultural sites is familiar and according to the contributors to this volume severely limited In a far reaching blend of comparative literature and transnational cultural studies this collection shifts the study of the novel away from a consideration of what makes a particular narrative a novel to a consideration of how novels function and what cultural work they perform from what novels are to what they do The essays in Cultural Institutions of the Novel find new ways to analyze how a genre notorious for its aesthetic unruliness has become institutionalized defined legitimated and equipped with a canon With a particular focus on the status of novels as commodities their mediation of national cultures and their role in transnational exchange these pieces range from the seventeenth century to the present and examine the forms and histories of the novel in England Nigeria Japan France New Zealand Canada and the United States Works by Jane Austen Natsume S seki Gabriel Garc a M rquez Buchi Emecheta and Toni Morrison are among those explored as Cultural Institutions of the Novel investigates how theories of the novel and disputes about which narratives count as novels shape social struggles and are implicated in contests over cultural identity and authority Contributors Susan Z Andrade Lauren Berlant Homer Brown Michelle Burnham James A Fujii Nancy Glazener Dane Johnson Lisa Lowe Deidre Lynch Jann Matlock Dorothea von M cke Bridget Orr Clifford Siskin Katie Trumpener William B Warner Intergroup Relations in the United States Wayne Winborne, Renae Cohen, 1998 American History Unbound Gary Y. Okihiro, 2015-08-25 A survey of U S history from its beginnings to the present American History Unbound reveals our past through the lens of Asian American and Pacific Islander history In so doing it is a work of both history and anti history a narrative that fundamentally transforms and deepens our understanding of the United States This text is accessible and filled with engaging stories and themes that draw attention to key theoretical and historical interpretations Gary Y Okihiro positions Asians and Pacific Islanders within a larger history of people of color in the United States and places the United States in the context of world history and oceanic worlds The International Handbook of Sociology Stella R. Quah, Arnaud Sales, 2000 A History of African Higher Education from Antiquity to the Present Y. G-M Lulat, 2005-08-30 Until recently Eurocentrist history professors taught that it was the Europeans who brought higher education to the African continent While the Europeans have indeed influenced African education in recent times there is some vital information that most history books leave out for centuries before the arrival of the Europeans the vast and advanced native African civilizations already had sophisticated universities and other institutions of higher education to boast about This book is an attempt to fill the chasm in today s literature regarding this topic It will be of interest to those researching the accurate non Euro biased history of Africa Amerasia Journal, 2000 America, History and Life, 1999 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide Performances of Masculinity in the Avant-garde and Performance Art Tate Austin Davis, 2001 Racial Liberalism and the Politics of Urban America Curtis Stokes, Theresa Meléndez, 2003 Racial Liberalism and the Politics of Urban America examines the philosophical and political framework that informs public policy impacting racially and ethnically diverse American cities in the twenty first century In their analyses of the intersection between race and public policy contributors to this volume explore the racial character of historical and contemporary American liberalism and draw upon data from the 2000 U S Census on topics such as healthcare the environment residential segregation and the changing meanings of race Consistent with Michigan State University s Race in 21st Century America Conference project the essays which reflect genuine racial intellectual and ideological diversity explore the idea and consequences of race in the United States and suggest fresh approaches toward overcoming the persistent and deep racial gap in life opportunities between whites and people of color Contributors Katya Gibel Azoulay Khari Brown Ronald E Brown David Carroll Cochran Joe T Darden Reynolds Farley John A Garcia Tamar Jacoby James Jennings Bill E Lawson Charles W Mills Mecke Nagel David N Pellow Richard Schmitt Brian D Smedley Robert C Smith Rogers M Smith Naomi Zack The Cumulative Book Index ,1988 A world list of books in the English language The Social Construction of Race and Ethnicity in the United States Prince Brown,1998 This groundbreaking collection of classic and cutting edge sociological research gives special attention to the social construction of race and ethnicity in the United States It offers an in depth and eye opening analysis of a the power of racial classification to shape our understanding of race and race relations b the way in which the system came into being and remains and c the real consequences this system has on life chances The readings deal with five major themes the personal experience of classification schemes classifying people by race ethnic classification the persistence functions and consequences of social classification and a new paradigm transcending categories For individuals who want to gain a fuller understanding of the impact the ideas of race has on a society that is consumed by it Asian American Politics Don T. Nakanishi,James S. Lai,James Siu-Fong Lai,2003 Asian Americans are emerging as a political force and yet their politics have not been systematically studied by either social scientists or politicians Asian American politics transcend simple questions of voting behavior and elective office going all the way back to early immigration laws and all the way forward to ethnic targeting For the first time this book brings together original sources on key topics influencing Asian American politics knit together by expert scholars who introduce each subject and place it in context with political events and the greater emerging literature Court cases legislation demographics and key pieces on topics ranging from gender to Japanese American redress to the Los Angeles riots to Wen Ho Lee round out this innovative reader on a politically active group likely to grow in number and electoral impact Berkeley La Raza Law Journal ,2002
