

Psychological Concepts/Strategies for Success Worksheet

Overview

Reflect on the following psychological concepts and strategies you've been learning about in the first 2 weeks of this course:

- Elements of success
- Big 5 personality traits
- Definitions of success
- Self-awareness
- Strengths
- Mindfulness
- Gratitude
- Self-esteem
- Positive thinking
- Attitude

Consider which of these psychological concepts or strategies covered in Ch. 1 and 2 of this week's reading can be used to improve your success in the following aspects of your life: at work, at school, and with your family or other personal relationships. In this worksheet, you choose 2 psychological concepts or strategies for each aspect of your life and explain why you chose each strategy and how it can help you increase your success in that aspect of your life.

Before you begin, review the sample responses below to get a better idea of what a response might include.

Sample Responses

Aspect of Life – Work

Psychological Concept/Strategy	Description/Rationale
Self-awareness	I am not sure what career path I want to take and understanding myself better will help. I want to know what I am good at, what is going to make me happy, and if I am heading in the right direction. By being self-aware, I will learn what my strengths, weaknesses, interests, and skill levels are. By knowing more about myself, I will be able to create a clear career path.

Aspect of Life – Family/Personal Relationships

Psychological Concept/Strategy	Description/Rationale
Mindset	Having a positive mindset will help me be a better parent to my children. This is something I can control and decide each day. Some days I struggle,
