Public Administration In Palestine Past And Present:

Public Administration in Palestine Usamah Shahwan, 2003-12-30 This work offers a critical analysis of the development of public administration in Palestine during the past 150 years Public administration, 1947 Political Science, Government, and Public Policy Series. Annual Supplement Universal Reference System, 1972 The government of Ireland: past, present and prospective Samuel Lloyd (Primitive Methodist minister.), 1899 Violent Acts and Urban Space in Contemporary Tel Aviv Tali Hatuka, 2010-05-01 Violent acts over the past fifteen years have profoundly altered civil rituals cultural identity and the meaning of place in Tel Aviv Three events in particular have shed light on the global rule of urban space in the struggle for territory resources and power the assassination of Prime Minister Rabin in 1995 in the city council square the suicidal bombing at the Dolphinarium Discoth que along the shoreline in 2001 and bombings in the Neve Shaanan neighborhood in 2003 Tali Hatuka uses an interdisciplinary framework of urban theory and sociopolitical theory to shed light on the discourse regarding violent events to include an analysis of the physical space where these events take place She exposes the complex relationships among local groups the state and the city challenging the national discourse by offering a fresh interpretation of contesting forces and their effect on the urban environment Perhaps the most valuable contribution of this book is its critical assessment of the current Israeli reality which is affected by violent events that continually alter the everyday life of its citizens Although these events have been widely publicized by the media there is scant literature focusing on their impact on the urban spaces where people live and meet In addition Hatuka shows how sociopolitical events become crucial defining moments in contemporary lived experience allowing us to examine universal questions about the way democracy ideology and memory are manifested in the city The Jewish People, Past and Present, 1948 Placing Critical Geography Lawrence D. Berg, Ulrich Best, Mary Gilmartin, Henrik Gutzon Larsen, 2021-11-29 This book explores the multiple histories of critical geography as it developed in 14 different locations around the globe whilst bringing together a range of approaches in critical geography It is the first attempt to provide a comprehensive account of a wide variety of historical geographies of critical geography from around the world Accordingly the chapters provide accounts of the development of critical approaches in geography from beyond the hegemonic Anglo American metropolises Bringing together geographers from a wide range of regional and intellectual milieus this volume provides a critical overview that is international and illustrates the interactions or lack thereof between different critical geographers working across a range of spaces The chapters provide a more nuanced history of critical geography suggesting that while there were sometimes strong connections with Anglo American critical geography there were also deeply independent developments that were part of the construction of very different kinds of critical geography in different parts of the world Placing Critical Geographies provides an excellent companion to existing histories of critical geography and will be important reading for researchers as well as undergraduate and graduate students of the history and philosophy of geography Modeling Sociocultural Influences on Decision Making Joseph V. Cohn, Sae Schatz, Hannah Freeman, David J. Y. Combs, 2016-09-19 In our increasingly globally interconnected world understanding and appreciating the sociocultural context within which individuals make their decisions is critical to developing successful partnerships The collection of chapters in this volume illustrates how advances in information and social media technologies as well as modeling and simulation tools combined with the social sciences can be leveraged to better understand how sociocultural context influences decision making The chapters in this volume were contributed by leading experts from academia industry and government and provide Insights into cross cultural decision making based on recent international events with grounding in an historical context Discussions of cutting edge modeling techniques used today by professionals across multiple organizations and agencies Descriptions of specific cross cultural decision making tools designed for use by laypeople and professionals Case studies on the role of cross cultural decision making grounded in current events and in many cases military applications Memoranda Prepared by the Government of Palestine Palestine, Great Britain.
