Polish Cinema Today Helena Goscilo, Beth Holmgren, 2021-08-19 A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Structured according to key themes Polish Cinema Today analyzes the remarkable innovations in Polish cinema emerging a decade after the 1989 dissolution of the Soviet bloc once its film industry had evolved from a socialist state enterprise into a much more accessible system of film production with growing expertise in distribution and marketing By the early 2000s an impressive diverse cohort of filmmakers broke through the gridlock of a small set of esteemed aging auteurs as well as the

glut of imported Hollywood blockbusters empowered by the digital revolution and domestic audience appetite for independent work Polish directors today challenge sacrosanct bromides about national and gender identity Poland's historical martyrdom the status of the influential Catholic Church and the benevolent family while investigating the phenomena of migration and sexuality in their full complexity Each thematic chapter places these recent films within a historical cultural context nationally and transnationally and designs its analyses of specific works to engage general audiences of film scholars students and cinephiles

Saints, Clergy and Other Religious Figures on Film and Television, 1895-2003 Ann C. Paietta, 2015-01-24 The portrayal of clergy saints missionaries monks and other spiritual leaders dates back to the very beginnings of motion pictures and television Over the years filmmakers have portrayed religious figures as heroes and villains sinners and saints and nearly everything in between Through their works filmmakers have influenced how society viewed these religious figures and by extension religion itself This work details over 900 films and television series made from the 1890s through 2003 in which a religious figure plays a prominent or recurring role or in which a character poses as a religious figure For each motion picture full filmographic data are provided including title studio running time year of release director producer writer and cast along with a synopsis focusing on the role of the religious figure Television series are covered in a separate section For each show the entry includes the title under which the show was commonly known the original broadcast network the years the show ran running time and cast and a brief discussion of the religious character's role in the overall series Extensively indexed
