Race A Philosophical Introduction:

Race Paul C. Taylor, 2021-11-18 The third edition of Race A Philosophical Introduction continues to provide the definitive guide to a topic of major contemporary importance In this thoroughly updated and revised volume Paul Taylor outlines the main features and implications of race thinking while engaging the ideas of important figures such as Linda Alcoff K Anthony Appiah W E B Du Bois Michel Foucault and Sally Haslanger The result is a comprehensive but accessible introduction to philosophical race theory and to a non biological and situational notion of race which blends metaphysics and social epistemology aesthetics analytic philosophy and pragmatic philosophy of experience Taylor approaches the key questions in philosophy of race What is race thinking Don t we know better than to talk about race now Are there any races What is it like to have a racial identity And how important ethically is color blindness On the way to answering these questions he takes up topics such as mixed race identity white supremacy the relationship between the race concept and other social identity categories and the impact of race thinking on our erotic and romantic lives The concluding section explores the racially fraught issues of policing immigration and global justice and the implications of the political upheavals of the past decade from the election of Donald Trump to the global upsurge in anti immigrant populism Updated throughout Race remains a vital resource for the educated general reader as well as for students and scholars of ethnic studies philosophy sociology and related fields

Race Paul C. Taylor, 2013-04-29 In Race A Philosophical Introduction Second Edition Paul C Taylor provides an accessible guide to a well travelled but still mysterious area of the contemporary social landscape As in the first edition the book blends metaphysics and social philosophy analytic philosophy and pragmatic philosophy of experience In this thoroughly updated and revised volume Taylor outlines the main features and implications of race thinking while engaging the ideas of such important figures as Linda Alcoff K Anthony Appiah W E B Du Bois Michel Foucault Sally Haslanger and Howard Winant The result is a comprehensive but accessible introduction to philosophical race theory and to a non biological and situational notion of race The book unfolds in a sequence of five chapters each devoted to one of the following questions What is race thinking Don t we know better than to talk about race now Are there any races What is it like to have a racial identity And how important ethically is color blindness On the way to answering these questions Race takes up topics like mixed race identity white supremacy the relationship between the race concept and other social identity categories and the impact of race thinking on our erotic and romantic lives The second edition s new concluding chapter explores the racially fraught issues of policing immigration and global justice and interrogates the thought that Barack Obama has ushered in a post racial age This volume is suitable for the educated general reader as well as for students and scholars in ethnic studies philosophy sociology and other related fields

Time: A Philosophical Introduction James Harrington, 2015-09-24 Time A Philosophical Introduction presents the philosophy of time as the central debate between being and the becoming This core theme brings together the key topics debates and thinkers making ideas such as Zeno s paradoxes the experience of change and temporal flow and the direction and shape of time and time travel clear and understandable Alongside a glossary and detailed timeline to further enhance study and understanding each chapter features Extensive lists of further reading in both primary and secondary sources A chronological listing of key figures brief biographical data and references True false questions matching multiple choice and short answer questions Time is a central philosophical subject impacting on all many different aspects of philosophy More technical discussions of issues from mathematics logic and physics are separated into Technical Interludes allowing readers to choose their level of difficulty As a result this comprehensive introduction is essential reading for upper level undergraduates studying the philosophy of time metaphysics or the philosophy of science

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Race Naomi Zack, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Race provides up to date explanation and analyses by leading scholars in African American philosophy and philosophy of race Fifty one original essays cover major topics from intellectual history to contemporary social controversies in this emerging philosophical subfield that supports demographic inclusion and emphasizes cultural relevance The Assisted Reproduction of Race Camisha A. Russell, 2018-12-06 The use of assisted reproductive technologies ART in vitro fertilization artificial insemination and gestational surrogacy challenges contemporary notions of what it means to be parents or families Camisha A Russell argues that these technologies also bring new insight to ideas and questions surrounding race In her view if we think of ART as medical technology we might be surprised by the importance that people using them put on race especially given the scientific evidence that race lacks a genetic basis However if we think of ART as an intervention to make babies and parents as technologies of kinship the importance placed on race may not be so surprising after all Thinking about race in terms of technology brings together the common academic insight that race is a social construction with the equally important insight that race is a political tool which has been and continues to be used in different contexts for a variety of ends including social cohesion economic exploitation and political mastery As Russell explores ideas about race through their role in ART she brings together social and political views to shift debates from what race is to what race does how it is used and what effects it has had in the world Remapping Race in a Global Context Ludovica Lorusso, Rasmus Grønfeldt Winther, 2021-12-30 Investigating the reality and significance of racial categories Remapping Race in a Global Context examines the role of race in human genomics biomedicine and struggles for social justice around the world In this book biologists anthropologists historians and philosophers inspect critical questions around the biological reality of race and how it has been understood in different national and regional contexts The essays also examine debates on the usefulness of race in medical and epidemiological studies With a focus on the fields of human genomics and biomedicine this book presents critical findings on whether and how race might be ethically and epistemologically justified in our age of personalized medicine mass surveillance and biased algorithms The book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students in a broad range of scientific and humanistic disciplines including biology anthropology geography philosophy cultural or community studies critical race theory and any field concerned with the deep racial dividing lines running across societies globally

The Biological Mind Justin Garson, 2022-03-16 For some biology explains all there is to know about the mind Yet many big questions remain Is the mind shaped by genes or the environment If mental traits are the result of adaptations built up over thousands of years as evolutionary psychologists claim how can such claims be tested If the mind is a machine as biologists argue how does it allow for something as complex as human thought Revised and updated to take account of new developments in the field The Biological Mind A Philosophical Introduction explores these questions and more using the philosophy of biology to introduce and assess the nature of the mind Justin Garson addresses the following key topics moral psychology altruism and levels of selection evolutionary psychology and the adaptationism debate genes environment and the nature nurture debate natural selection and mental representation psychiatric classification and the maladapted mind This second edition includes three new chapters on race sex and human nature as well as new sections on group and kin selection psychological altruism and cultural evolution Including chapter summaries annotated further readings a glossary of terms and examples and case studies throughout this is an indispensable introduction for those teaching philosophy of mind philosophy of psychology and philosophy of biology It will also be an excellent resource for those in related fields such as biology
