Race Class And Gender In Exclusion From School:

'Race', Class and Gender in Exclusion From School Alex McGlaughlin, Debbie Weekes, Cecile Wright, 2002-11 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Reflections on School Integration Mokubung O. Nkomo, Carolyn McKinney, Linda Chisholm, 2004 School integration means among other things that the divisions created by apartheid need to be addressed systematically and systemically Integration is not merely about changing the racial demographics of learner and educator bodies It means schools changing to meet the needs of all children fostering meaningful interaction among learners in the classroom on the playground and in extra mural activities as well as instilling a human rights culture It means constructing curricula texts and pedagogies that are informed by a democratic ethos and it requires teachers school managers and communities that are equipped to promote a democratic school environment In short it is about inclusivity and social cohesion And the issue of integration is as pertinent internationally as it is in South Africa questions of race racism citizenship and diversity are central to school systems throughout the world This book contains the proceedings of a colloquium held in October 2003 attended by leading South African and international researchers to take stock of the status quo in school integration and identify new directions research should be taking to support the process of change Schools and Society Jeanne H. Ballantine, Joan Z. Spade, 2008 Presents the most recent theories research terms concepts ideas and histories on educational leadership and school administration as taught in preparation programs and practiced in schools and colleges today Encyclopedia of Cross-Cultural School Psychology Caroline S. Clauss-Ehlers, 2010-02-18 With contributions from leading school psychology practitioners this encyclopedia provides a one of a kind guide to cross cultural school psychology Some 400 entries explore concepts themes and the latest research findings to answer your questions in all aspects of the field Moreover the encyclopedia offers support at all levels of primary and secondary education from pre K to 12th grade Each entry offers a description of a particular term a bibliography and additional readings The editor is widely known for her bi weekly Spanish language columns and her appearances on television and radio as a cross cultural expert Leading Diverse Schools Jim Ryan, 2006-04-11 This book explores the challenges that school administrators face in ethnically diverse contexts Based on an empirical study it shows how principals do or do not promote inclusive practices in their schools This volume is the first of its kind to specifically target school administrators and ethnic diversity It will be of interest to school administrators prospective administrators teachers graduate students and academics Early Childhood Studies Liz Jones, Rachel Holmes, John Powell, 2005 This work looks at the issues that relate to young children from a multiprofessional point of view looking at education identity health issues and much more Geographies of Girlhood Pamela J. Bettis, Natalie G. Adams, 2005-03-23 Explores the everyday lives of adolescent girls in terms of how forming one's identity becoming somebody takes place in a myriad of places beyond the formal classroom and curriculum An Introduction to the Study of Education David Matheson, 2008 This core textbook introduces the reader to the study of education itself It invites the reader to question what education is what it is for and who it is for It challenges the assumption that education equals school and takes the reader on a trip from the cradle to old age

Inclusion and Diversity in Education: Inclusive pedagogy in curricula and classrooms Peter Hick, Gary Thomas, 2009 This 4 volume set brings together seminal articles and key writings on the theme of inclusion and diversity in education The collection takes disability and special educational need as a starting point from which to develop a broader focus on a range of themes relating to learners who may be marginalised from educational opportunities This includes for example members of minority ethnic communities students excluded from schools or who are looked after in public care and other dimensions of exclusion arising from social class gender or sexuality The starting point for understanding inclusive education lies in social justice perspectives and this forms the basis for the first volume Volumes two and three focus on research aimed at developing more inclusive practices both at the levels of schools and school systems and at the levels of inclusive pedagogy enacted in the classroom and through the curriculum Volume four reflects the range of voices in research on inclusive education drawing on traditionally marginalised voices and those of learners in particular Three cross cutting themes are represented across all four volumes a chronological approach showing how key concepts and perspectives have developed in each area of the literature identified groups of learners developing more nuanced readings of how processes of exclusion and inclusion intersect dimensions such as disability class and race and contexts for learning such as urban education and global or comparative perspectives

Young British African and Caribbean Men Achieving Educational Success Cecile Wright, Uvanney Maylor, Thomas Pickup, 2020-10-04 In contrast to research that focuses on the underperformance of young Black males in the British education system the dominant notion of this volume is educational success By aiming to understand how young Black notably African and Caribbean male education plays out in different educational spaces this book provides new insights around intersections between and across different structural forces and educational contexts Examining the political cultural and structural factors that shape the educational journey of young Black men in the British education system the book will cover topics such as Race gender and class and the attainment gap Contextualising Black men's educational narratives The role of family and parenting in achieving success The role of community resource in achieving success Young British African and Caribbean Men Achieving Educational Success will be of interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of multicultural education and gender and sexuality in education as well as educators concerned with how Black male masculinities play out in educational discourses Cecile Wright is Professor in the School of Sociology and Social Work University of Nottingham UK Uvanney Maylor is Professor of Education in the Institute for Research in Education at the University of Bedfordshire UK Thomas Pickup is a Principal Policy and Project Officer in local government in the UK

Education, Globalization, and Social Change Hugh Lauder, 2006 Education is seen as central to economic competitiveness the reduction of poverty and inequality and environmental sustainability The editors have selected key writings that examine the social and economic limits and possibilities of education in addressing these fundamental problems This new reader establishes the field of sociology of education with a particular focus on papers that analyse the nature and extent of globalization in education A general introduction presents the key concepts in the sociology of education and outlines the major theories and debates especially in relation to globalization Each section is accompanied by a part opener explaining and contextualizing the readings within a larger educational and sociological context Alberta Journal of Educational Research ,2002

From Enforcement and Prevention to Civic Engagement Bruce Kidd,University of Toronto. Centre of Criminology,2004

Educational Research in an Age of Accountability Robert E. Slavin,2007 The book is designed to enable students to become intelligent consumers of educational research in order to help create effective and accountable learning environments Written in a very clear and user friendly style this text focuses on understanding the intent of the researcher the procedures and the results so that students can use appropriate research findings to inform school change

This text emphasizes how responses to the accountability movement in schools can be focused around using and understanding scientific inquiry. It balances quantitative and qualitative research methodology and discusses action research and mixed methods in detail. Principles for conducting research and criteria for evaluating its overall credibility are presented in a concise manner. Students are shown how to analyze and evaluate research and judge the usefulness of the findings for educational practice. In addition, students are shown how this knowledge can translate to their own classrooms.
