Race Excellence My Dialogue With Chester Pierce:

Race & Excellence Ezra E. H. Griffith, Chester M. Pierce, 1998 Griffith psychiatry and African and African American studies Yale U engages in dialogue with pioneering black psychiatrist Pierce They meld his life and career focusing on his theories about the predictable nature of racist behavior and the responses of oppressed groups and how his own experience with racism has affected his work In addition to his work on racism Pierce is known for his substantive scholarship on coping with extreme environments such as the South Pole No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Race and Excellence Ezra E. H. Griffith, 2022 Graduate of Harvard Medical School president of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology founding national chair of the Black Psychiatrists of America the list of Chester Pierce s accomplishments cement him as a luminary in the field and that is before one considers how foundational his theories about racism as an environmental pollutant are to modern mental health Reprinted with a new introduction this collection of conversations between Ezra Griffith and Pierce sheds light on the man behind the titles and theories Follow Chester! Gloria Respress-Churchwell, 2019-09-17 A little known civil rights hero and college football MVP finally gets a voice in this fictional account detailing Chester Pierce s game changing role as the first Black college football player to compete south of the Mason Dixon Line In 1947 no African American player can play at a southern school in return the opposing team benches a player of equal talent This historical fiction picture book frames a turbulent time in the civil rights era with the clever use of a football play to show race relations and teamwork Inspired by a true story capturing a historic defense against the Jim Crow laws of the South Racial Exhaustion Ralina L. Joseph, 2025-12-02 How to build stamina to confront racial exhaustion and communicate differently about race In the wake of diversity equity and inclusion initiatives many Americans regardless of race find themselves exhausted by conversations about race and racism People of color continue to bear the weight of systemic racism while also shouldering the burden of explaining and confronting daily microaggressions White people whether allies or skeptics often feel defensive fatigued or uncertain about how to engage in discussions about race Across the spectrum the result is the same exhaustion Drawing from her experience running Interrupting Privilege a racial dialogue program Ralina Joseph blends personal narrative real world dialogue and critical race scholarship to explore how we communicate race today and how we can do better Through practices of deep listening embracing discomfort and interrupting microaggressions this book guides readers in transforming everyday interactions into opportunities for anti racist change Racial Exhaustion challenges us to recognize and address the fatigue that racial discourse brings while offering practical strategies to foster more equitable and productive conversations Black Mental Health Ezra E. H. Griffith, M.D., Billy E. Jones, M.D., Altha J. Stewart, M.D., 2018-09-24 The experiences of both black patients and the black mental health professionals who serve them are analyzed against the backdrop of the cultural societal and professional forces that have shaped their place in this specialized health care arena The End of Bias Jessica Nordell, 2021-09-23 Unconscious bias persistent prejudiced behaviour that clashes with our consciously held beliefs Its effects can be corrosive even lethal It robs organizations of talent science of breakthroughs politics of insight individuals of their futures and communities of justice So what real world steps can we take to counteract it Drawing on ten years immersion in the topic Jessica Nordell digs deep into the cognitive science and social psychology that underpin efforts to create change and introduces us to the people who are practising a range of promising methods the police using mindfulness to regulate high stress situations the doctors whose diagnostic checklists help eliminate bias in treatment the lawyers and educators striving to embed equality all the way from the early years playroom to the boardroom Biased behaviour can be ended This path breaking inspiring and indispensable book shows us how
