Race To Oblivion:

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1983-08 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Apocalyptic Projections Annette M. Magid, 2015-06-18 Apocalyptic Projections have been pondered since Biblical times Theories abounded in an attempt to prepare for calamity and plan for the future Worldwide concern regarding a twenty first century apocalypse related to the 2012 Mayan Apocalyptic prediction sparked renewed interest Even though the concept of apocalypse evokes images of total oblivion threads of possibility and redemption offer a potential fabric of hope The majority of the papers included in Apocalyptic Projections were p Great Power Security Cooperation David W. Kearn, 2014-12-18 This book explains the conditions under which great powers are likely to cooperate to improve their security by engaging in qualitative arms control In agreeing to limit or proscribe certain classes of weapons states will constrain their military capabilities and therefore decrease the threat they pose to potential adversaries Focusing on the expected military impact of technological change and the capacity of states to confidently monitor the activities of its negotiating partners it may be possible to forge lasting agreements that improves the security of the participating states However at other times the nature technological change may force states to engage in competitive behavior precluding cooperation and increasing the probability of conflict Examining a diverse set of cases including the Washington Naval Conference The World Disarmament Conference at Geneva the Baruch Plan for the International Control of Atomic Energy and the SALT I Accords including the ABM Treaty this volume presents a persuasive comprehensive and interesting contribution to the literature on arms racing and arms control and should be of interest to students of international relations theory and security studies By presenting a theoretical informed model that explicitly links the security strategies of states to their choices about development and deployment of new weapons and consequently their willingness to engage in arms control cooperation this book provides an important refinement upon existing theoretical and historical approaches Race to Oblivion Herbert Frank York, 1971 My Avatar, My Self Zach Waggoner, 2009-05-21 With videogames now one of the world's most popular diversions the virtual world has increasing psychological influence on real world players This book examines the relationships between virtual and non virtual identity in visual role playing games Utilizing James Gee's theoretical constructs of real world identity virtual world identity and projective identity this research shows dynamic varying and complex relationships between the virtual avatar and the player's sense of self and makes recommendations of terminology for future identity researchers John Von Neumann and Norbert Wiener Steve J.
