Racetalk Racism Hiding In Plain Sight:

Racetalk Kristen A. Myers, 2005-08-04 Studying racism is challenging Most people avoid publicly expressing racialized comments in fear of being labeled racist Much public talk is sugar coated and coded to distance the speaker from the racist message This study captures behind the scenes commentary racetalk that degrades people due to race and ethnicity Despite racial inroads made over the past several decades the racetalk in this study evinces old fashioned racist ideas persisting in modern imaginations These scripts say that African Americans are dangerous Whites are superior Latinos are dirty and disposable Indians are sinister Slavery is a trivial if not nostalgic and amusing historical anomaly that is better forgotten Private racetalk keeps these old scripts hidden yet alive Through racetalk people imbue different racial and ethnic groups with oppositional statuses Racetalk delineates boundaries between whiteness blackness and brownness Racetalk is a tool used in policing these boundaries Most people who cross racial ethnic boundaries through alliances friendships and courtships are sanctioned Nevertheless some people are able to cross more successfully than others An analysis of the content of racetalk reveals the processes through which people negotiate racial ethnic meanings and boundaries on a daily basis In so doing they often perpetuate the old racial regime but occasionally they challenge it Two-Faced Racism Leslie Picca, Joe Feagin, 2020-07-24 Two Faced Racism examines and explains the racial attitudes and behaviours exhibited by whites in private settings While there are many books that deal with public attitudes behaviours and incidences concerning race and racism frontstage there are few studies on the attitudes whites display among friends family and other whites in private settings backstage The core of this book draws upon 626 journals of racial events kept by white college students at twenty eight colleges in the United States The book seeks to comprehend how whites think in racial terms by analyzing their reported racial events Absent the Archive Lia Brozgal, 2020-11-04 Absent the Archive is the first cultural history devoted to literary and visual representations of the police massacre of peaceful Algerian protesters This corpus or an archive includes a variety of cultural texts whose formal diegetic and discursive strategies represent the massacre and its erasure its becoming invisible and its afterlives as a trace a memory a sign Racial Emotion at Work Tristin K. Green, 2023-10-03 Takes White Fragility to the next level placing emotional conversations about race squarely in the realm of employment discrimination law exploring how implicit bias and diversity trainings are insufficient tools for battling inequality in the workplace Racial Emotion at Work is an invitation to understand our own emotions and associated behaviors around race and much more With this surprising and timely book Tristin K Green takes us beyond diversity trainings and other individualized solutions to discrimination and inequality in employment calling for sweeping changes in how the law and work organizations treat and shape racial emotions Green provides readers with the latest research on racial emotions in interracial interactions and ties this research to thinking about discrimination and disadvantage at work We see how our racial emotions can result in discrimination and how our institutions the law and work organizations value and skew our racial emotions in ways that place the brunt of negative consequences on people of color It turns out we need to reset our institutional and not just our personal radars on racial emotion to advance racial justice Racial Emotion at Work shows how we can rise to the task

Black Americans in Higher Education James Conyers, Jr., 2020-01-21 Narrating the realities of teacher burnout the reception of a Black intelligentsia and HIV awareness in local communities Black Americans in Higher Education the eighth volume of Africana Studies explores higher education across the United States as inextricably related to contemporary issues facing African Americans Featuring the work of Terrell M Thomas Gwendolyn D Alfred Kevin B Thompson Jasmine Williams TaNeisha R Page Drew D Brown Grace A Loudd Derek Wilson DaVonte Lyons Jacqueline Gerard Tanisha Stanford Lanetta Dickens Brittany C Slatton and James L Conyers Jr this collection presents a deeper cross cultural understanding of higher education that conveys the many ways its intersections can promote the agency of Black Americans

Racial Profiling and Borders Jeff Shantz, 2010 Racial profiling and border security have become characteristic features of governance in Western liberal democracies during the twenty first century This new collection provides an important multi national perspective on an issue of great and growing concern particularly but not exclusively in the context of corporate globalization and neo liberal governance Despite the growing significance of regimes of racial profiling surveillance and tightened border controls in the post 9 11 period there have been very few extended analyses of racial profiling in different eras and contexts particularly at borders The work examines the issue from a transborder perspective with comparisons connections and intersections of policy and practice Chapters examine a range of topics including racial profiling and implications for international and human security racial profiling along borders in the US and the construction of terrorists and illegal aliens racial profiling and problems of proof and movements opposing racial profiling among others Overall the chapters in this collection reframe racial profiling as a human rights rather than civil rights issue making an important contribution to analyses of this important topic About the editor Jeff Shantz teaches critical theory elite deviance community and human rights in the Department of Criminology at Kwantlen Polytechnic University in Metro Vancouver Canada He is the author of the book Living Anarchy Theory and Practice in Anarchist Movements His writings have appeared in leading international journals including Critical Sociology Critique of Anthropology Feminist Review and New Politics as well as numerous anthologies A longtime community organizer he has been a member of the Ontario Coalition Against Poverty and host of the weekly Anti Poverty Report on radio stations CHRY and CKLN in Toronto Canada Dr Shantz received his Ph D from York University in Toronto

Stories of Inclusion? Deborah A. Piatelli, 2009 In accessible prose this study bridges the literatures of social movement theory critical race studies and feminist theory and offers new insight into how power and privilege can affect the process of creating inclusive communities Drawing on data the author collected through in depth interviews interpretive focus groups and over two years of participant observation this study explores how white middle class privilege influences political analyses definitions of peace work and approaches to alliance building The findings are compelling and reveal that even those who have developed an oppositional political consciousness and have pledged to work across racial and class divides can still foster exclusive organizing practices
