,1998-05 Racing with the Clock Nancy Elizabeth Adelman, Karen Panton Walking Eagle, Andy Hargreaves, 1997 Time has long been recognized as a serious obstacle to successful school reform In Racing with the Clock ten teachers write about time related frustrations growing out of school reform efforts and how the problems were or were not resolved The descriptions are rich with specific examples of what it is like to actually experience school reform and how it impacts on a teacher's already full day The cases are preceded by contextual descriptions and a chapter by the editors on time related issues raised by the cases Each case study also includes one or more commentaries prepared by representatives e.g. principals department chairpersons other teachers from schools and districts discussed They present new or different perspectives on the issues and identify new questions and topics for discussion within the cases The book concludes with an insightful essay by Andy Hargreaves who worked with the teachers in constructing their cases Teaching the Way

Children Learn Beverly Falk, 2009 Helping students master a broad range of individual words is a vital part of effective vocabulary instruction Building on his bestselling resource The Vocabulary Book Michael Graves new book describes a practical program for teaching individual words in the K8 classroom Designed to foster effective efficient and engaging differentiated instruction Teaching Individual Words combines the latest research with vivid illustrations from real classrooms Get ready to bridge the vocabulary gap with this user friendly teaching tool The Competent Classroom Allison Zmuda, Mary Tomaino, 2001 Describes the cross disciplinary journey of two high school teachers trying to align curriculum assessment and performance standards in their classrooms With a focus on the importance of constantly inspiring students the authors troubleshoot issues surrounding content standards instructional objectives and the aims of curriculum

Teacher Practice Online Désirée H. Pointer-Mace, 2009-04-27 Teachers know how complicated their work is They constantly balance considerations of individual students with those of the group they think about how past events affect today's lessons and they constantly adapt and revise for future lessons But few people ever get to see teachers work in this way The most energizing relational complicated inspiring disheartening parts of teaching remain largely invisible Over nearly a decade at the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Désirée Pointer-Mace worked with dozens of teachers across the country to open their doors by creating multimedia web based representations of teaching practice This book describes how such multimedia representations are envisioned documented created and shared and how others might engage in this process This practical book Examines the cutting edge of electronic media documentation of teaching practice

Features cases studies that represent diverse grades cultures and contexts with both novice and veteran teachers Provides clear examples of how multimedia representations of teaching can be used as alternative texts in teacher learning environments Describes the positive outcomes for teachers and learners when teaching is made public Includes screen images of teachers websites as well as classrooms and children participating in projects      Paradigm Debates in Curriculum and Supervision Jeffrey Glanz,Linda S. Behar-Horenstein,2000-01-30 Annotation Explores how conceptions of curriculum and supervision exert a substantial impact upon school practice      The Power of Protocols Joseph P. McDonald,2007 The use of protocols has spread from conferences and workshops to everyday school and university settings Featuring seven protocols this teaching and professional development tool is useful for those working with collaborative groups of teachers on everything from school improvement to curriculum development to teacher education at all levels

Progress in Education R. Nata,2001 Eight contributions analyze some of the current ideas and programs in education Topics covered include proficiency testing market based reforms of public schooling teachers perceptions of administrative change dealing with constant demands for school change tutoring and high school grades as a signal of human capital Coverage extends to the role of literacy and knowledge in the pursuit of popular empowerment and the educational implications of a multicultural psychology of human development c Book News Inc      Going to Scale with New School Designs Joseph P. McDonald,Emily J. Klein,Meg Riordan,2009-08-08 Since it was first invented Americans have been trying to re design the American high school One of the latest approaches funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation is to find inventive high school designs that work well in one location and replicate them in other locations The authors of this book followed a design team from Big Picture Learning as it worked to do exactly this recording the challenges it faced and the strategies it employed Their accessible and entertaining account of Big Pictures work is laced with stories about scaling up by other school design teams and in other enterprises beyond high school Based on careful research the book is both a practical guide to a new dimension of school reform and also an interesting read for anyone interested in school change

The Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language      Managing to Change Thomas Hatch,2009-04-24 This book shows how school improvement efforts are often undermined by the changing conditions around schools as well as by some of the very policies and programs designed to help them make improvements Hatch argues that schools cannot wait around for conditions to improve or for policymakers to figure out how to provide the right support Schools need to create the conditions for their own success To help them accomplish that the author describes a small set of key practices that schools can use to get resources manage external demands and build their capacity to make and sustain improvements over time Drawing on the stories of real schools this important book Explains why even schools that have strong principals committed teachers and involved parents continue to struggle while other schools can get by even without displaying the usual features of effectiveness Provides practical strategies to help schools take advantage of opportunities and respond to pressures in the external environment Explains why some of the usual solutions to improving schools like increasing pressure on low performing schools scaling up programs and school choice don't seem to be working the way they are supposed to Offers a vision of the work that needs to be done at both the local and national level to support school improvement on a wider scale      Teachers in Professional Communities Ann Lieberman, Lynne Miller, 2008-07-24 What are the challenges and how has your program dealt with them BOOK JACKET      Schools Within Schools Valerie E. Lee, Douglas D. Ready, 2007-01-15 How effective is whole school high school reform such as the Schools Within Schools SWS model What benefits does it have for students and in which areas does it fall short This book seeks to answer these questions through the compelling stories of five public high schools that have embraced the SWS method In order to fully understand the effectiveness of such a system Valerie Lee and Douglas Ready have delved into every aspect of the reform in these settings including participants reactions curriculum structures governance and leadership and the allocation of students to the schools The result is a thoughtful look at the SWS model that considers the benefits and problems of implementation along with issues of equity and access Provides the first comprehensive systematic report on the Schools Within Schools reform Offers suggestions for how this popular high school reform can be implemented to work for all students not just the most academically able or socially advantaged Follows five schools for several years to determine the long term results of the reform      Boletín Internacional de Bibliografía Sobre Educacion ,1998      The Rural Educator ,1999      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997      Journal of Education ,1881      Tennessee Librarian ,1996      Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineer's Monthly Journal ,1875
