Dangerous Memory in Nagasaki Gwyn McClelland, 2019-09-10 On 9th August 1945 the US dropped the second atomic bomb on Nagasaki Of the dead approximately 8500 were Catholic Christians representing over sixty percent of the community In this collective biography nine Catholic survivors share personal and compelling stories about the aftermath of the bomb and their lives since that day Examining the Catholic community's interpretation of the A bomb this book not only uses memory to provide a greater understanding of the destruction of the bombing but also links it to the past experiences of religious persecution drawing comparisons with the Secret Christian groups which survived in the Japanese countryside after the banning of Christianity Through in depth interviews it emerges that the memory of the atomic bomb is viewed through the lens of a community which had experienced suffering and marginalisation for more than 400 years Furthermore it argues that their dangerous memory confronts Euro American centric narratives of the atomic bombings whilst also challenging assumptions around a providential bomb Dangerous Memory in Nagasaki presents the voices of Catholics many of whom have not spoken of their losses within the framework of their faith before As such it will be invaluable to students and scholars of Japanese history religion and war history
