Rolling with the 6.57 Crew - The True Story of Pompey's Legendary Football Fans Cass Pennant, 2014-09-17 Portsmouth's 6 57 Crew named for the time of the train they took to away games were the most talked about casual football firm of the 1980s and 1990s. Labelled the worst in the land by the police, this is Pompey's true shocking story. For the first time, the firm's insiders reveal the truth behind the tabloid headlines. Cass Pennant is the best-selling author of Want Some Aggro. Congratulations! You have just met the ICF and a hugely successful autobiography. Cass Rob Silvester travelled on the 6 57 train many times and became a part of the notorious group of fans. As a no-holds-barred look into a world of turmoil and violence, this is an unsurpassed book. It's required reading not only for football fans but also those who want to know the amazing facts about a social phenomenon that changed the face of British culture.

West Australian Football Golden Era 1984-86 Kieran James, 2017-09-10 This book is the memoir of Kieran James and details his experiences as co-founder of West Perth Football Club's unofficial cheer squad from 1984 to 1986. The book details traditional hot support for West Perth Football Club among teenaged supporters from middle class and working class backgrounds. The book shows how, because of neo-liberal ideologies and the corporatization of football, the new national league, the expanded VFL/AFL, relegated the WAFL to a second tier league in 1987. This move took place over the heads of ordinary football supporters and two WAFL club presidents. Moves to bring the game closer to the people in 1984, such as holding the best and fairest award count night at Perth Entertainment Centre, should be seen in this light. This book will allow supporters to relive great teams, great players and great matches from a wonderful era in WA football, 1984-86, before West Coast Eagles joined the expanded VFL.

Goodbye Leederville Oval: History of West Perth Cheer Squad 1984-86 (large print) Kieran James, 2017-12-13 This large print edition book is the memoir of Kieran James and details his experiences as co-founder of West Perth Football Club's unofficial cheer squad, hardcore support from 1984 to 1986. Western Australian Football League (WAFL) Using Marsh's theory of the illusion of violence, the author links the cheer squad to the academic literature on British soccer hooligans, Italian ultras and other soccer supporter groups from around the world. The book details traditional hot support for West Perth Football Club among teenaged supporters from middle class and working class backgrounds. The findings conform to Armstrong and Hughson's idea of fluid post-modern neo-tribes where affiliations are very loose and people can easily adjust their degree of commitment to a group and/or leave the group when their personal priorities change. The book also allows the reader to relive great WAFL matches and meet again key players from the era.

The Pleasure Principle David L. Andrews, 2006 From the ancient Olympic games to the savage gladiatorial contests of the Roman Empire from the thrill of the World Cup to the hype of the Super Bowl sport represents a singular source of social belonging and communal enjoyment sometimes as intense as religious faith The Pleasure Principle addresses the issue of sport as a form of pleasure contending that sport like any form of popular culture reveals a lot about the society in which it appears Examining sports through various theoretical lenses including Marxist feminist and poststructuralist and from numerous disciplinary viewpoints history sociology cinema studies literature and cultural studies this special issue demonstrates the complexity of contemporary sports culture Ranging from the humorous to the ironic from the personal to the theoretical and from sports as dissimilar as baseball and rugby gambling and karate this issue explains fandom itself and explores the intersections of sport and politics sport and class and sport and identity One timely essay addresses the use of Native American imagery and nicknames and the recent NCAA ban on these references Another classifies gambling as a popular American sport one that in 2003 attracted three times as many attendees as all Major League Baseball franchises combined Another essay delves into the history of the golfing mecca of Pinehurst North Carolina discussing the resort's roots in the age of Jim Crow Among the other topics addressed in this issue are how soccer fandom and commodity culture can be one and the same why Liverpool's 2005 victory in the European Champions League proves that God is red and why the Olympic Games can represent performative nationalism Contributors David L.
