femininity the Tristan tradition s marvelously gifted healers the Muslim princess in Bevis of Hampton the endlessly wealthy fairy imagined by Sir Launfal and Partonope of Blois the monster mother Melusine and Morgan le Fay the prototypical witch By tracking the way each type first establishes then complicates generic patterns this study highlights the tension between romance s persistent fascination with feminine power and its simultaneous reiteration of the social and generic bounds on women s agency and authority Interrogating generic expectations from an intersectional feminist perspective it makes a case for a recuperative re reading of romance one that asks us to revise our assumptions about the potentialities of women s power in the medieval imaginary
