

Answer Explanations

SAT Practice Test #8

Section 1: Reading Test

QUESTION 1

Choice A is the best answer. The first paragraph explains the narrator's love of reading: "Even then my only friends were made of paper and ink. . . . Where my school friends saw notches of ink on incomprehensible pages, I saw light, streets, and people." The fourth paragraph reiterates this love in its description of the bookshop as a "sanctuary" and "refuge." The shift in focus occurs in the last six paragraphs, which recount the gift of a book that transforms the narrator's love of reading into a desire to write: "I did not think there could be a better [book] in the whole world and I was beginning to suspect that Mr. Dickens had written it just for me. Soon I was convinced that I didn't want to do anything else in life but learn to do what Mr. Dickens had done." Thus the passage's overall focus shifts from the narrator's love of reading to a specific incident that influences his decision to become a writer.

Choice B is incorrect because the passage never focuses on the narrator's father, who primarily serves to illustrate the narrator's determination to read books despite all obstacles. Choice C is incorrect because the passage focuses on the narrator's desire to write rather than on whatever skill he may have as a writer. Choice D is incorrect because the passage doesn't make the narrator's childhood hardships its central focus or analyze the effects of those hardships.

Choice C is the best answer. In the first paragraph, the third sentence describes the narrator's love of reading ("where my school friends saw notches of ink on incomprehensible pages, I saw light, streets, and people"), and the fourth sentence describes the role that reading played in the narrator's life ("a safe haven from that home, those streets, and those troubled days in which even I could sense that only a limited fortune awaited me"). The remainder of the passage recounts incidents in which the narrator's actions arise from his love of, and dependence on, reading. Thus the third and fourth sentences can be seen as describing a passion that accounts for those actions.

Bus Services Across the UK Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee, 2006-10-26 Buses are a key local service but usage has been in decline since the 1950s The Transport Act 1985 introduced deregulation but that has failed to reverse that decline The report examines the particular problems local authorities face in developing and implementing effective bus strategies It is clear to the Committee that for many areas including all major metropolitan areas outside London the current regime is not working The Committee recommends more flexibility and is particularly attracted by Quality Contracts These would replace open competition with a licensed regime Operators bid for exclusive rights to run bus services on a route or group of routes on the basis of a local authority service specification Independent Traffic Commissioners are another development that the Committee welcomes and would like to see them have a higher profile and more resources and powers especially to enforce Quality Contracts and penalise operators who do not meet their obligations Others areas covered in the report are securing socially necessary services outside the PTAs congestion and bus priority
