Sequel To History Postmodernism And The Crisis Of Representational Time:

Sequel to History Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth, 2020-10-06 Sequel to History offers a comprehensive definition of postmodernism as a reformation of time Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth uses a diversified theoretical approach drawing on post structuralism feminism new historicism and twentieth century science to demonstrate the crisis of our dominant idea of history and its dissolution in the rhythmic time of postmodernism She enlarges this definition in discussions of several crises of cultural identity the crisis of the object the crisis of the subject and the crisis of the sign Finally she explores the relation between language and time in post modernism proposing an arresting theory of her own about the rhythmic nature of postmodern temporality Because the postmodern construction of time appears so clearly in narrative writing each part of this work is punctuated by a rhythm section on a postmodern narrative Robbe Grillet's Jealousy Cortezar's Hopscotch and Nabokov's Invitation to a Beheading these extended readings provide concrete illustrations of Ermarth's theoretical positions As in her critically acclaimed Realism and Consensus in the English Novel Ermarth ranges across disciplines from anthropology and the visual arts to philosophy and history For its interdisciplinary character and its lucid definition of postmodernism Sequel to History will appeal to all those interested in the humanities

Distant Relation Eoin Scott Thomson, 2000 In The Distant Relation Eoin Thomson presents innovative readings of canonical philosophic and literary texts focusing on the distance that mediates the relation between word and thing past and present I and you Through a novel convergence itself arising from a field of philosophic and literary experimentation he challenges previous traditions while demonstrating that his strategy is appropriate to the texts considered The Distant Relation breaks down the artificial division between philosophy and literature by weaving contemporary philosophic arguments through close readings of Carpentier Rulfo Paz and Garcia Marquez Thomson draws the reader into the largely uninhabited space between philosophy and literature providing new critical strategies that allow text and reader to respond to the very distance they share These strategies involve a reconceptualisation of distance that recognises the productive and affirmative nature of separation The Distant Relation will attract anyone interested in the ongoing struggle to overcome conventional interpretations of language time and identity within the broader context of philosophical trends and Spanish American studies Eoin S Thomson is an independent scholar who has taught in the Department of Philosophy at Trent University

Geschlechterverhältnisse — Naturverhältnisse Andreas Nebelung, Angelika Pöferl, Irmgard Schultz, 2013-09-03 Das Buch sucht nach Überschneidungen und Zwischenräumen zwischen Geschlecht und Umwelt Was leisten Ansätze der Geschlechterforschung für das umweltsoziologische Denken Und was kann das Unbehagen an gegenwärtigen Naturverhältnissen von feministischen Debatten lernen

Doing Time Rita Felski, 2000-09-01 Contemporary theory is full of references to the modern and the postmodern How useful are these terms What exactly do they mean And how is our sense of these terms changing under the pressure of feminist analysis In Doing Time Rita Felski argues that it makes little sense to think of the modern and postmodern as opposing or antithetical terms

Rather we need a historical perspective that is attuned to cultural and political differences within the same time as well as the leaky boundaries between different times Neither the modern nor the postmodern are unified coherent or self evident realities Drawing on cultural studies and critical theory Felski examines a range of themes central to debates about postmodern culture including changing meanings of class the end of history the status of art and aesthetics postmodernism as the end of sex and the politics of popular culture Placing women at the center of analysis she suggests has a profound impact on the way we think about historical periods As a result feminist theory is helping to reshape our vision of both the modern and the postmodern Postmodern Surroundings ,2023-11-20 Postmodern Studies deals with any aspect of postmodernism or of postmodernity and the postmodern in relation to literature Publications in this series can be either of a theoretical or a more practical analytic nature They may refer to any one or to several literary works genres or literatures They may also refer to the other arts provided the main focus remain literary In evaluating contributions the editors of Postmodern Studies will follow no particular methodological or ideological bias All manuscripts accepted in the series first undergo a process of peer review Due to rapid developments in literary studies we close the series for new publications

Towards a Poetics of Postmodern Drama Mufti Mudasir,2014-06-26 The book is a study of Harold Pinter and Tom Stoppard arguably the two most eminent British playwrights of the past sixty years or so from a perspective of what it describes as a poetics of postmodern drama Arguing for the application of Linda Hutcheon s model of postmodernism to the study of drama Towards a Poetics of Postmodern Drama shows that postmodern drama should be seen as a self consciously contradictory and double coded phenomenon one which simultaneously inscribes and subverts the conventional categories of dramatic representation In spite of its indebtedness to Beckett s Absurdist and Brecht s Epic theaters postmodern drama should not be conflated with either This is primarily because postmodern drama retains a critical edge towards contemporary reality in a manner which Hutcheon very aptly terms as a complicitous critique The book demonstrates that both Pinter and Stoppard are pre eminently postmodern in their treatment of issues such as the human subject the notion of truth historical verifiability and linguistic reference Pinter s preoccupation with non referential modes of language use the role of power in the construction of the subject and unreliable memories is as potent a way of disrupting the representational status of drama as Stoppard s repeated recourse to devices such as parody theater within theater and the fictional treatment of history of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world

Entgrenzung der Geschichte Michael Wachholz, 2005 Diese Untersuchung über aktuelle geschichtstheoretische Debatten in den USA seit den 1960er Jahren beschäftigt sich mit den Grundlagentexten von Hayden White Jean Francois Lyotard Michel Foucault und Michel de Certeau auf die sich die Vertreter einer postmodernen Historiographie und Literaturgeschichte zahlreich berufen In einer sympathisierenden Kritik dieser Texte sucht die Arbeit aufzuzeigen wie sich eine gerechtere selbstreflexive Geschichtsschreibung denken lässt die nicht in die Falle der als asymmetrisch Heterogenität unterschlagend und repressiv empfundenen Meistererzählungen geht sich zugleich aber einen Teil des verlorenen gegangenen Vertrauens in die Referentialität von Sprache und Erzählstrukturen zurückerobert Eine andere Geschichte der englischen Literatur Ansgar Nünning, 1998 Why History? Keith Jenkins, 2005-11-18 Why History is an introduction to the issue of history and ethics Designed to provoke discussion the book asks whether a good knowledge and understanding of the past is a good thing to have and if so why In the context of postmodern times Why History suggests that the goal of learning lessons from the past is actually learning lessons from stories written by historians and others If the past as history has no foundation can anything ethical be gained from history Why History presents liberating challenges to history and ethics proposing that we have reached an emancipatory moment which is well beyond the end of history History and Theory, 1992 Protozoologie, 2001 Von historischer Fiktion zu historiographischer Metafiktion: Theorie, Typologie und Poetik des historischen Romans Ansgar Nünning, 1995 Obsession der Gegenwart Alexander C.T. Geppert, Till Kössler, 2015-10-28 Time is an obsession of the present yet current debates seem largely unaware of its historical formation throughout the twentieth century Given a century characterized by frequent ruptures and supersessions of competing temporal regimes it is remarkable that time has not played a more central role in its historicisation neither as analytical category nor thematic research subject The nine articles in this special issue set in Germany England Spain and Japan pursue both perspectives On the one hand they examine the conceptual role function and importance of time in and for the writing of history on the other they analyse changing regimes and historicity and the transformation of time practices empirically Criticising established standard narratives of a global standardization of time or its relentless acceleration this volume rather emphasizes the pluritemporality of the twentieth century and foregrounds the historical preconditions of our digitally driven present day simultaneities Thus it explores the possibilities of the historicisation of time as a fundamental category for thinking the twentieth century and offers a building block for a new time history Heralds of the Postmodern Yuan-Jung Cheng, 1999 Heralds of the Postmodern inquires into the possibility of a poetics of madness in Heart of Darkness Mrs Dalloway and The Golden Notebook By relating the literary expression of the irrational in these works to the philosophical attempt to overcome the subject and rationality in the writings of Nietzsche Foucault and Derrida the book presents modern fiction as an arena in which struggles between reason and madness limitation and transgression self and the other are fully displayed It investigates how modern literature subverts traditional metaphysics by exploring the realm of the other reason and the new forms of subjectivity The Arizona Quarterly ,1994 Geschichte Der Geschichtsschreibung ,1999 2nd European Feminist Research Conference: Proceedings ,1994 The Road from George Orwell Alberto Lázaro,2001 Fifty years after his death George Orwell is generally recognised as a leading exponent of twentieth century English prose and one of the most influential satiric writers whose work has continually raised all kinds of political controversies This volume assembles twelve papers delivered at the VIII Jornadas de Literatura Inglesa at the University of Alcal in May 2000 The conference set out to re examine Orwell s work and thought in the light of contemporary theoretical concerns as well as to discuss the mark he has left in British literature in the second half of the twentieth century particularly on political satire and the development of dystopian fiction A first group of essays provides new insights and fresh ways of viewing familiar issues such as Orwell s controversial political thought the representation of race and gender in his early fiction the narrative strategies of his documentary prose and the impact of Spanish censorship on his writing particularly on Homage to Catalonia Other essays explore the legacy of Orwell s dystopian fiction in later novelists such as Zo Fairbairns Alasdair Gray Robert Harris Julian Barnes and Ben Elton as well as issues of history and language that are raised in Orwell s writings and dominate twentieth century fiction Actes Du XIXe Congrès de la Fédération Internationale Des Langues Et Littératures Modernes International Federation for Modern Languages and Literatures.
