Portraits of the greats of China ,1978      Portraits of the Greats of China ,1977      The Great Chinese Art Transfer Michael St. Clair,2016-04-01 This book tells the story of how and why millions of Chinese works of art got exported to collectors and institutions in the West in particular to the United States As China s last dynasty was weakening and collapsing from 1860 into the early years of the twentieth century China s internal chaos allowed imperial and private Chinese collections to be scattered looted and sold A remarkable and varied group of Westerners entered the country had their eyes opened to centuries of Chinese creativity and gathered up paintings bronzes and ceramics as well as sculptures jades and bronzes The migration to America and Europe of China s art is one of the greatest outflows of a culture s artistic heritage in human history A good deal of the art procured by collectors and dealers some famous and others little known but all remarkable in individual ways eventually wound up in American and European museums Today some of the art still in private hands is returning to China via international auctions and aggressive purchases by Chinese millionaires      Portraits of the Greats of China Tsun-wen Shih,1977      Portraits of the Greats of China ,1978      Portraits of the Greats of China ,1982      Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1980      The international portrait gallery International portrait gallery,1878      Chinese Propaganda on Tibet Warren W. Smith Jr.,2023-04-11 China has produced a tremendous amount of propaganda justifying its invasion and occupation of Tibet This book reproduces excerpts from some of the most notable of these articles along with a critical analysis The primary themes of Chinese propaganda about Tibet are that Tibet has always been a part of China thus there is no question about Tibetan independence or a Chinese invasion of Tibet that the traditional Tibetan social system was a dark cruel savage feudal hell on earth from which Tibetans welcomed their liberation by the CCP and that China has selflessly assisted Tibetan social and economic development ever since while taking nothing from Tibet China denies the legitimacy of any issues of Tibetan nationalism self determination or any desire by Tibetans for an independent political existence Despite China s claims about the happiness of the Tibetan people Tibetan resistance has continued These excerpts from propaganda articles and documents reveal the political and cultural ideology of the Chinese as they attempt to maintain and justify their control over Tibet      Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People ,1876      Painters and their Works: A Dictionary of great Artists, who are not now alive, giving their names, lives, and the prices paid for their works at auctions Ralph N.
