Portraits Of The South West Aborigines Women And The Environment:

Portraits of the South West Brian K. De Garis, 1993 Collection of papers on the the history of the south west of Western Australia papers by S Le Souef and B Pope annotated separately Myths and Memories Cindy Lane, 2015-02-27 This book examines the perceptions of European travelling writers about southern Western Australia between 1850 and 1914 Theirs was a narrow vision of space and people in the region shaped by their individual personalities their position in society and the prevailing discourses and ideologies of the age Christian Enlightenment and Romantic philosophies had a major influence on their responses to the land its cultivation and conservation and its aesthetic qualities and on their views of both indigenous and settler colonial society their class and assumptions of race and ethnicity The travelling men and women perpetuated an idealised view of a colonised landscape and a pioneer community that eliminated class struggle and inequality even though an analysis of their observations suggests otherwise Nevertheless although limited their narratives are invaluable as a reflection of opinions attitudes and knowledge prevalent during an age of imperialism Their perspectives reveal unique viewpoints that differ from those of immigrants who wrote about their hopes and fears in making a new life for themselves These travellers were economically secure literate and educated foundations which provide an insight into the way power and privilege implicit in their writings governed the way they imagined Western Australia in the colonial and immediate post federation period The tinted lenses through which European travelling writers narrowly observed space and people presented a mythical imagined sense of southern Western Australia Indigenous Intermediaries Shino Konishi, Maria Nugent, Tiffany Shellam, 2015-09-29 This edited collection understands exploration as a collective effort and experience involving a variety of people in diverse kinds of relationships It engages with the recent resurgence of interest in the history of exploration by focusing on the various indigenous intermediaries Jacky Jacky Bungaree Moowattin Tupaia Mai Cheealthluc and lesser known individuals who were the guides translators and hosts that assisted and facilitated European travellers in exploring different parts of the world These intermediaries are rarely the authors of exploration narratives or the main focus within exploration archives Nonetheless the archives of exploration contain imprints of their presence experience and contributions The chapters present a range of ways of reading archives to bring them to the fore The contributors ask new questions of existing materials suggest new interpretive approaches and present innovative ways to enhance sources so as to generate new stories Forest Family John C. Ryan, Rod Giblett, 2018-06-12 Forest Family highlights the importance of the old growth forests of Southwest Australia to art culture history politics and community identity The volume weaves together the natural and cultural histories of Southwest eucalypt forests spanning pre settlement colonial and contemporary periods The contributors critique a range of content including historical documents music novels paintings performances photography poetry and sculpture representing ancient Australian forests Forest Family centers on the relationship between old growth nature and human culture through the narrative strand of the Giblett family of Western Australia and the forests in which they settled during the nineteenth century The volume will be of interest to general readers of environmental history as well as scholars in critical plant studies and the environmental humanities History of the Australian Environment Movement Drew Hutton, Libby Connors, 1999-04-13 This book presents a history of the value of the Australian environment and the struggles to protect it A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Bookbuyers' Reference Book, 1993 Noongar People, Noongar Land Kingsley Palmer, 2016 This book is based on the expert anthropological report for the Noongar people's native title claim entitled Single Noongar Native Title Claim W6006 of 2003 W6012 of 2003 anthropologist's report The report was filed in the Federal Court of Australia in 2004 Aboriginal Economy & Society Ian Keen, 2004 Drawing on early colonial sources as well as the writing of amateur and professional anthropologists this book compares the social life and culture of seven regions of Australia as they appear to have been at the threshold of colonization Aboriginal History, 1997 Contested Country Patricia Crawford, Ian M. Crawford, 2003 First chapters explore Aboriginal links to land based mainly on historical sources Murrumbidgee traditions and relationship to land Murrumbidgee use of the karri forests burning of land Murrumbidgee seasons contact history in the Northcliffe area Australian Books in Print 1998 Bowker, 1998-04 excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage AMERICAN REFERENCE BOOKS ANNUAL This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 75 000 in print books published in or about Australia or written by Australian authors organized by title author keyword You'll also find brief profiles of more than 7 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From D W Thorpe The Biology of Australian Possums and Gliders Ross L. Goldingay, Stephen M. Jackson, 2004 Proceedings of a symposium held in Brisbane in July 2001 convened as part of the 47th annual conference of the Australian Mammal Society International Books in Print, 1990 The Pursuit of Wonder Julia Horne, 2005 More than 200 years after Joseph Banks global tour we can still appreciate the magic of wonder the motivation of thousands of tourists each year who seek out natural beauties This beautiful book will appeal to those who enjoy their history placed in the best possible surrounds Australian National Bibliography, 1993 Antipodes, 1995 Decolonial Enactments in Community Psychology Shoshana Kessi, Shahnaaz Suffla, Mohamed Seedat, 2021-11-30 This edited volume in the Community Psychology Book Series emphasizes applications of community psychology for disrupting dominant and hegemonic power relations The book explores domains of work that are located within critical community psychology as well as work that is conventionally not self defined as community psychology but which draws on and contributes to the foundations and enactments of critical and liberatory community psychology Specifically the book advances conceptions and praxes for community psychology grounded within a decolonial framework The volume heeds the call for a generation of approaches to community psychology that link local struggles to broader questions of power identity and knowledge production bringing together examples of praxes from different contexts as a political project of highlighting indigenous struggles toward self determination Collectively the chapters in this book embody a decolonial agenda for community psychology that foregrounds social justice the lives and knowledges of the marginalized and oppressed epistemic disobedience and transdisciplinarity and decolonial aesthetics The book is divided into two parts Part I Conceptions of Engagement for Community Psychology delves into the conceptual framework for a decolonial community psychology and Part II Modes of Enactments and Praxes for Community Psychology builds on these theoretical advancements through examples of praxis in different contexts The audience for the book includes scholars researchers practitioners activists and students located within community psychology specifically as well as disciplines within the health and social sciences and arts and humanities more broadly
