Roberto, 2010 A compilation of reflections and tales from friends and other admirers who were influenced and inspired by Celeste West a feminist librarian lesbian publisher and activist Provided by publisher The Subject of Film and Race Gerald Sim, 2014-07-31 The Subject of Film and Race is the first comprehensive intervention into how film critics and scholars have sought to understand cinema s relationship to racial ideology In attempting to do more than merely identify harmful stereotypes research on films and race appropriates ideas from post structuralist theory But on those platforms the field takes intellectual and political positions that place its anti racist efforts at an impasse While presenting theoretical ideas in an accessible way Gerald Sim s historical materialist approach uniquely triangulates well known work by Edward Said with the Neo Marxian writing about film by Theodor Adorno and Fredric Jameson The Subject of Film and Race takes on topics such as identity politics multiculturalism multiracial discourse and cyborg theory to force film and media studies into rethinking their approach specifically towards humanism and critical subjectivity The book illustrates theoretical discussions with a diverse set of familiar films by John Ford Michael Mann Todd Solondz Quentin Tarantino Keanu Reeves and others to show that we must always be aware of capitalist history when thinking about race ethnicity and films
