

The background of the slide is a photograph of a rural landscape. In the foreground, there is a lush green field with a wire fence running diagonally across it. Beyond the fence, a dirt road or path leads into the distance. The background features rolling green hills under a sky with soft, warm light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is peaceful and scenic.

Literature and the Politics of Post-Victorian Decadence Kristin Mahoney, 2015-06-09 In Literature and the Politics of Post Victorian Decadence Kristin Mahoney argues that the early twentieth century was a period in which the specters of the fin de siècle exercised a remarkable draw on the modern cultural imagination and troubled emergent avant gardistes. These authors and artists refused to assimilate to the aesthetic and political ethos of the era representing themselves instead as time travellers from the previous century for whom twentieth century modernity was both baffling and disappointing. However they did not turn entirely from the modern moment but rather relied on decadent strategies to participate in conversations concerning the most highly vexed issues of the period including war, the rise of the Labour Party, the question of women's sexual freedom and changing conceptions of sexual and gender identities.

Rewriting the Victorians Andrea Kirchknopf, 2013-05-28 The 19th century has become especially relevant for the present as one can see from for example large scale adaptations of written works as well as the explosion of commodities and even interactive theme parks. This book is an introduction to the novelistic refashionings that have come after the Victorian age with a special focus on revisions of Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre and Charles Dickens's Great Expectations. As post Victorian research is still in the making the first part is devoted to clarifying terminology and interpretive contexts. Two major frameworks for reading post Victorian fiction are developed: the literary scene (authors, readers, critics) and the national identity (political and social aspects). Among the works examined are Caryl Phillips's Cambridge, Matthew Kneale's English Passengers, Peter Carey's Oscar and Lucinda and Jack Maggs, Lloyd Jones's Mister Pip, Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea, D. M. Thomas's Charlotte and Jasper Fforde's The Eyre Affair.
