Post-colonial Literatures in English Richard Lever, James Wieland, Scott Findlay, 1996 Post-colonial Literatures in English Mark Williams, 1996 This is the second volume in a new series on new post colonial English language literature It contains annotated listings of critical works on the literature of Southeast Asia New Zealand and the Pacific organized by geographical area and by general works and works by particular authors Includes listings of general reference aids including national and annual bibliographies and finding aids Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Decolonizing Cultures in the Pacific Susan Y. Najita, 2006-09-22 In Decolonizing Cultures in the Pacific Susan Y Najita proposes that the traumatic history of contact and colonization has become a crucial means by which indigenous peoples of Oceania are reclaiming their cultures languages ways of knowing and political independence In particular she examines how contemporary writers from Hawai i Samoa and Aotearoa New Zealand remember re tell and deploy this violent history in their work As Pacific peoples negotiate their paths towards sovereignty and chart their postcolonial futures these writers play an invaluable role in invoking and commenting upon the various uses of the histories of colonial resistance allowing themselves and their readers to imagine new futures by exorcising the past Decolonizing Cultures in the Pacific is a valuable addition to the fields of Pacific and Postcolonial Studies and also contributes to struggles for cultural decolonization in Oceania contemporary writers critical engagement with colonialism and indigenous culture Najita argues provides a powerful tool for navigating a decolonized future

Bowker's Best Reference Books: Author index. Title index, 2005 Contains approximately 20 000 mostly English language sources for academic libraries of all sizes Diasporic Poetics Timothy Yu, 2021-07-08 This book advances a new concept of the Asian diaspora that creates links between Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian identities Drawing from comparable studies of the black diaspora it traces the histories of colonialism immigration and exclusion shared by these three populations The work of Asian poets in each of these three countries offers a rich terrain for understanding how Asian identities emerge at the intersection of national and transnational flows with the poets thematic and formal choices reflecting the varied pressures of social and cultural histories as well as the influence of Asian writers in other national locations Diasporic Poetics argues that racialized and nationally bounded Asian identities often emerge from transnational political solidarities from Third World struggles against colonialism to the global influence of the American civil rights movement Indeed this volume shows that Asian writers disclaim national belonging as often as they claim it placing Asian diasporic writers at a critical distance from the national spaces within which they write As the first full length study to compare Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian writers the book offers the historical and cultural contexts necessary to understand the distinctive development of Asian writing in each country while also offering close analysis of the work of writers such as Janice Mirikitani Fred Wah Ouyang Yu Myung Mi Kim and Cathy Park Hong

Strong Opinions Chris Danta,Sue Kossew,Julian Murphet,2011-07-14 This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee s work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee s most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee s decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee s direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee s explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life

Transnationalism, Education and Empowerment Niranjana Casinader,2017-02-03 Transnationalism Education and Empowerment challenges the prevailing notion that transnationalism is concerned fundamentally with the process of enhanced global population movement that has been allied with modern globalisation Instead it argues that transnationalism is a state of mind disassociated from the notion of place that can be observed equally in societies of the past Drawing on the context of colonial Sri Lanka and the British Empire the book discusses how education in the British Empire was the means by which some marginalised groups in colonised societies were able to activate their transnational dispositions Far from being a universal oppressor of colonised people as argued by postcolonial scholarship colonial education was capable of creating pathways to life improvement that did not exist before the European colonial period providing agency to those who did not possess it prior to colonial rule The book begins by exploring the meaning of transnationalism arguing that it needs to be redefined to meet the realities of past and current global societies It then moves on to examine the ways education was used within the period of 18th and 19th century European colonialism with a particular emphasis on Sri Lanka and other parts of the former British Empire Drawing from examples of his own family s ancestry Casinader then discusses how some marginalised groups in parts of the British Empire were able to use education as the key to unlocking their pre existing transnational dispositions in order to create pathways for more prosperous futures Rather than being subjugated by colonial education they harnessed the educational aspects of British colonial education for their own goals This book is one of the first to contest and critically evaluate the contemporary conceptualisation of transnationalism particularly in the educational context It will be of key interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education the history of education imperial and colonial history cultural studies and geography Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Australian Books in Print 1995 Thorpe, D.
