Post Conflict Capabilities Independent Task Force Report:

U.S. Trade and Investment Policy Andrew H. Card, Edward H. Alden, Council on Foreign Relations, Matthew Jon Slaughter, 2011 From American master Ward Just returning to his trademark territory of Forgetfulness and The Weather in Berlin an evocative portrait of diplomacy and desire set against the backdrop of America's first lost war U.S.-Turkey Relations Madeline Albright, Steven Cook, Stephen Hadley, Senior Fellow Steven A. Cook, 2012-05 Turkey is a rising regional and global power facing as is the United States the challenges of political transitions in the Middle East bloodshed in Syria and Iran's pursuit of nuclear weapons As a result it is incumbent upon the leaders of the United States and Turkey to define a new partnership in order to make a strategic relationship a reality says a new Council on Foreign Relations CFR sponsored Independent Task Force Working With a Rising India Charles R. Kaye, Joseph S. Nye Jr., Alyssa Ayres, 2015-11-01 India now matters to U.S. interests in virtually every dimension This CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report directed by Alyssa Ayres assesses the current situation in India and the U.S. India relationship and suggests a new model for partnership with a rising India U.S. Strategy for Pakistan and Afghanistan Richard Lee Armitage, Samuel R. Berger, Daniel Seth Markey, 2010 The Council on Foreign Relations sponsors Independent Task Forces to assess issues of current and critical importance to U.S. foreign policy and provide policymakers with concrete judgments and recommendations Diverse in backgrounds and perspectives Task Force members aim to reach a meaningful consensus on policy through private and non-partisan deliberations Once launched Task Forces are independent of CFR and solely responsible for the content of their reports Task Force members are asked to join a consensus signifying that they endorse the general policy thrust and judgments reached by the group though not necessarily every finding and recommendation Each Task Force member also has the option of putting forward an additional or a dissenting view Members' affiliations are listed for identification purposes only and do not imply institutional endorsement Task Force observers participate in discussions but are not asked to join the consensus Book Jacket North America Council on Foreign Relations, 2014-10-01 This CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report North America Time for a New Focus asserts that elevating and prioritizing the U.S. Canada Mexico relationship offers the best opportunity for strengthening the United States and its place in the world U.S. Education Reform and National Security Joel I. Klein, Condoleezza Rice, Julia Levy, 2014-05-14 The United States failure to educate its students leaves them unprepared to compete and threatens the country's ability to thrive in a global economy and maintain its leadership role This report notes that while the United States invests more in K-12 public education than many other developed countries its students are ill prepared to compete with their global peers According to the results of the 2009 Program for International Student Assessment PISA an international assessment that measures the performance of 15 year olds in reading mathematics and science every three years U.S. students rank fourteenth in reading twenty fifth in math and seventeenth in science compared to students in other industrialized countries The lack of preparedness poses threats on five national security fronts economic growth and competitiveness physical safety intellectual property U S global awareness and U S unity and cohesion says the report Too many young people are not employable in an increasingly high skilled and global economy and too many are not qualified to join the military because they are physically unfit have criminal records or have an inadequate level of education The report proposes three overarching policy recommendations implement educational expectations and assessments in subjects vital to protecting national security make structural changes to provide students with good choices and launch a national security readiness audit to hold schools and policymakers accountable for results and to raise public awareness U.S. Nuclear Weapons Policy William James Perry,Brent Scowcroft,Charles D.

Ferguson,2009 The report notes that in the near term nuclear weapons will remain a fundamental element of U S national security For this reason it emphasizes the importance of maintaining a safe secure and reliable deterrent nuclear force and makes recommendations on this front The report also offers measures to advance important goals such as preventing nuclear terrorism and bolstering the nuclear nonproliferation regime Foreword Defending an Open, Global, Secure, and Resilient

Internet Council on Foreign Relations,2013-06-01 The CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report Defending an Open Global Secure and Resilient Internet finds that as more people and services become interconnected and dependent on the Internet societies are becoming increasingly vulnerable to cyberattacks To support security innovation growth and the free flow of information the Task Force recommends that the United States and its partners work to build a cyber alliance make the free flow of information a part of all future trade agreements and articulate an inclusive and robust vision of Internet governance A Sharper Choice on North Korea Mike Mullen,Sam Nunn,Adam Mount,2016-09-01 The Emerging

Global Health Crisis Council on Foreign Relations,2014-12-01 Rates of heart disease cancer diabetes and other noncommunicable diseases NCDs in low and middle income countries are increasing faster in younger people and with worse outcomes than in wealthier countries In 2013 alone NCDs killed eight million people before their sixtieth birthdays in developing countries A new CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report and accompanying interactive look at the factors behind this epidemic and the ways the United States can best fight it NATO-EU Cooperation in Post-conflict

Reconstruction Jean Dufourcq,David S. Yost,2006 Annual Report Council on Foreign Relations,2005

Transformational Diplomacy Justin Vaïsse,2007 The attacks of September 11 2001 spectacularly demonstrated that America s main security challenges did not stem from traditional power rivalries but rather from grey areas failed or badly governed states which are breeding grounds for extremism Today the emphasis has shifted from focusing on relations between states to acting directly on states themselves so as to pre empt the growth of terrorism arms proliferation genocide civil wars etc After the concept of the global war on terror President George W Bush put forward his freedom agenda aiming to promote democracy as a response to the security challenges facing the world in particular in the Middle East But overthrowing tyrants and holding elections is not enough to create a stable and well governed democracy and can even in some cases complicate matters as events between 2003 and 2005 in Iraq Afghanistan the Palestinian Authority and Egypt have shown This is where transformational diplomacy the concept inaugurated by Condoleezza Rice in early 2006 comes in Basically this consists in working with the partners of the United States with a view to build and sustain democratic well governed states that will respond to the needs of their people and conduct themselves responsibly in the international system To enable this to happen it is first of all American diplomacy which must transform itself so as to become less analytical and more operational characterised by direct involvement in foreign societies rather than just being restricted to the realm of foreign policy This Chaillot Paper explores the scope and limits of this transformative action is the realist paradigm that of interpower rivalries really no longer relevant Can diplomats transform themselves into active promoters of good governance Are other countries ready to accept them in this role or will they accuse them of interference Can transformational diplomacy really change the world

Endgame in the Balkans Elizabeth Pond, 2006-09-26 Can Europe tame the Balkans That s the question veteran journalist Elizabeth Pond addresses in this timely and absorbing book Starting with the wars of the Yugoslav succession Endgame in the Balkans guides readers through the region s tumultuous recent history and explores both how the lure of European Union EU membership has affected the Balkans and how Balkan developments have shaped the EU Drawing on hundreds of interviews as well as decades of experience as a foreign correspondent Pond moves deftly across the region from Bulgaria to Romania Kosovo Croatia Bosnia Macedonia Albania and Serbia and Montenegro She examines the many hurdles standing between these countries and EU membership including poverty corruption and rabid chauvinism as well as the hopes and problems that have led Balkan leaders to look to the West In the process she paints a vivid picture of the challenges facing the region as it seeks to vault from the nineteenth to the twenty first century Already in its brief history the European Union has forged a historic reconciliation between France and Germany and helped consolidate democracy in Portugal Spain and Greece But in southeastern Europe it faces one of its most difficult tasks yet Endgame in the Balkans reveals the full extent of this challenge as well as the grounds for hope Rich in detail and penetrating analysis this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in the future both of the region and of Europe as a whole

Descent Into Chaos Ahmed Rashid, 2008 Since 9 11 the war in Afghanistan and the invasion of Iraq the West has been fighting a War on Terror through force and through the building of new societies in the region In this clear and devastating account with unparalleled access and intimate knowledge of the political players Descent into Chaos chronicles our failure Having reported from central Asia for a quarter of a century Ahmed Rashid shows clearly why the war in Iraq is just a sideshow to the main event Rather it is Pakistan Afghanistan and the five Central Asian states that make up the crisis zone for it is here that terrorism and Islamic extremism are growing stronger Documenting with precision how intimately linked Pakistan is with the Taliban and other extremist movements while remaining the US s main ally in the region Rashid brings into focus the role of many regional issues in supporting extremism from nuclear programmes to local rivalries ineffectual peace keeping to tyrannical rulers For Rashid at the heart of the failure in Iraq is the US s refusal to accept the need to build nations Ambitious and urgent analysing events policies and personalities across the largest landmass in the world Descent into Chaos chronicles with chilling accuracy why Islamic extremism is now stronger than ever Foreign Affairs ,2006
