Post-NAFTA Political Economy Carol Wise, 2010-11-01 An assessment of the impact of NAFTA on Mexico and its implications for the broadening of hemispheric economic cooperation Lateinamerika im internationalen System Klaus Bodemer, Susanne Gratius, 2013-07-29 Der Sammelband stellt dar wie sich die lateinamerikanischen Staaten bemühen ihre außenpolitischen Konzepte und Strategien zu reformieren und sich im internationalen System neu zu positionieren Mit dem Ende des Ost West Konflikts der Rückkehr zur Demokratie und der fortschreitenden Globalisierung sehen sich die lateinamerikanischen Staaten seit Beginn der 90er Jahre herausgefordert ihre Außenpolitik veränderten Rahmenbedingungen anzupassen und sich im internationalen System neu zu positionieren Sie tun dies auch mit verstärkten Integrationsbemühungen Free Trade Area of Americas and Mercosur Andengemeinschaft zentralamerikanischer und karibischer Markt z T in Gestalt eines offenen Regionalismus sowie einer verstärkten Diversifizierung ihrer Außenbeziehungen Dabei lassen sich vor allem in den Beziehungen zu den USA und Europa den traditionellen Partner Lateinamerikas neue Akzente ausmachen

Political Economy of Energy in the Southern Cone Anil Hira, 2003-03-30 Hira explores the impact of the neoliberal revolution in Latin America which claims the superiority of markets that are freed from government intervention and restrictions on trade and investment He examines changes in the energy policy of the Southern Cone Argentina Bolivia Brazil Chile Paraguay and Uruguay and finds that contrary to what is claimed and expected there is a great deal of state intervention that continues through regulatory policy All around the world economic markets are in flux Policies to change these markets are part of the neoliberal revolution that claims the superiority of markets freed from government intervention and restrictions on trade and investment The general conclusion among most academic and policy analysts who study developing countries is that market liberalization is a foregone conclusion Developing countries choices are constrained by two primary factors first the burden of massive external debt that forces them to court international finance and second the need to gain access to the world s largest markets in Europe and or the United States optimally through free trade agreements The effects of market liberalization including deregulation privatization and integration require further scrutiny Hira examines the effects of international market pressures on energy policy at the national regional and sectoral levels in Latin America s Southern Cone Argentina Bolivia Brazil Chile Paraguay and Uruguay who belong to the MERCOSUR common market Contrary to what is claimed and expected he finds that a great deal of state intervention continues through regulatory policy He also provides an thorough set of comparative political economy case studies along with a discussion of the MERCOSUR process with regards to energy His analysis of the political economy of electricity and natural gas deregulation is especially relevant in the wake of the California energy crisis the Enron debacle and international discussions about energy deregulation This book is of particular interest to scholars students and other researchers involved with Latin American economic development and energy policy The Effects of NAFTA on Mexico's Economy and Politics Wŏn-ho Kim, 2000

The Last American Diplomat George W. Liebmann, 2012-01-27 Can John D Negroponte be described as The Last American Diplomat In a career spanning 50 years of unprecedented American global power he was the last of a dying breed of patrician diplomats devoted to public service a self effacing and ultimate insider whose prime duty was to advise guide and warn a bulwark of traditional diplomatic realism against ideologue excess Negroponte served as US ambassador to Honduras Mexico the Philippines and Iraq he was US Permanent Representative to the UN Director of National Intelligence and Deputy Secretary of State to George W Bush His was a high flying and seemingly conventional career but one full of surprises Negroponte opposed Kissinger in Vietnam supported a proxy war but opposed direct American military action against Marxists in Central America facing bitter Congress opposition in the process He swam against the floodtide of George W Bush s neocon dominated administration warning against the Iraq war as a possible new Vietnam and criticising aspects of Bush s War on Terror He disconcerted the administration by arguing that the re establishment of Iraq would take as long as five years And he was influential in international social and economic policy working for the successful re settlement of millions of refugees in Southeast Asia following the Vietnam War issuing early warnings about the scourge of AIDS in Africa and successfully launching the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA George W Liebmann s incisive account is based on personal and shared experience but it is no hagiography beyond the author s discussions with Negroponte this book is deeply researched in US state papers and includes interviews with leading actors It will provide fascinating reading for anyone interested in the inside story of American diplomacy showing personal and policy struggles and the underlying fissures present even in the world s last remaining superpower

Security Communities and their Neighbours A. Bellamy, 2004-08-31 Does the proliferation of security communities around the world presage a new era of competition between regions or an era of intensified global integration This important new study assesses the relationship between security communities and their neighbours and asks whether processes of regional integration will contribute to a global clash of civilizations Drawing on four detailed case studies Western Europe Southeast Asia the Persian Gulf and North America Alex J Bellamy argues that the more mature a security community becomes the less likely it is to become a regional fortress

The New Political Economy of United States-Caribbean Relations Tony Heron, 2004 Focusing on the United States and the Caribbean this informative book traces the advent and subsequent growth of production sharing between outsourcing textiles and apparel firms and assembly operations located in specially designated export processing zones The study brings a fresh perspective to the continuing debate about globalization and regionalization in the global political economy and the ways in which state policy in both developed and developing countries shapes the patterns of economic integration and competitiveness among participating countries and firms

Lateinamerika, 2000

Post-Stabilization Politics in Latin America Carol Wise, Riordan Roett, 2003-07-28 Over the last twenty years Latin America has seen a definitive movement toward civilian rule Significant trade fiscal and monetary reforms have accompanied this shift exposing previously state led economies to the forces of the market Despite persistent economic and political hardships the combination of civilian regimes and market based strategies has proved to be remarkably resilient and still dominates the region This book focuses on the effects of market reforms on domestic politics in Latin America While considering civilian rule as a constant the book examines and compares domestic political responses in six countries that embraced similar packages of reforms in the 1980s Argentina Brazil Chile Mexico Peru and Venezuela The contributors focus on how ambitious measures such as liberalization privatization and deregulation yielded mixed results in these countries and in doing so they identify three main patterns of political economic adjustment In Argentina and Chile the implementation of market reforms has gone hand in hand with increasingly competitive politics In Brazil and Mexico market reforms helped to catalyze transitions from entrenched authoritarian rule Finally in Peru and Venezuela traditional political systems have collapsed and civilian rule has been repeatedly challenged The contributors include Carol Wise University of Southern California Karen L Remmer Duke University Carol Graham Brookings Institution Stefano Pettinato United Nations Development Programme Consuelo Cruz Tufts University Juan E Corradi New York University Delia M Boylan Chicago Public Radio Riordan Roett Johns Hopkins University Mart n Tanaka Institute for Peruvian Studies Lima and Kenneth M Roberts University of New Mexico
