Post Theory Games And Discursive Resistance:

Post-Theory, Games, and Discursive Resistance Alexander Kiossev, 1995-01-25 This book consists of a dialogue of genres fiction parables essay analytic programmatic on the topic of Eastern European political culture before and after 1989 These texts introduce us to a reexamination of the aesthetic and political character of Eastern Europe The later texts undertake a major theoretical revision of some of the key concepts in aesthetic and political philosophy associated with post totalitarian Eastern Europe The topic is very important for a correct evaluation of the current ideological and aesthetic makeup of our postmodern age The most stimulating aspect of this collection is its continuous detour through related areas its definition of political aesthetics by way of the historical avant garde its explanation of communism by way of the modernist utopia Ideologien zwischen Lüge und Wahrheitsanspruch Steffen Greschonig, Christine S. Sing, 2013-03-08 Die Beitr ge aus den unterschiedlichsten Wissenschaftsdisziplinen zeigen dass Ideologien von jeher Wahrheitsanspr che formulierten die im Verlauf ihrer Wirkungsgeschichte entweder als Irrt mer buchst blich L gen gestraft wurden oder von zeitgen ssischen ideologischen Gegenentw rfen als solche bezeichnet wurden Überbringen - Überformen - Überblenden Dietlind Hüchtker, Alfrun Kliems, 2011 Angaben zur beteiligten Person H chtker Dietlind H chtker ist Historikerin und forscht zu geschlechtergeschichtlichen Themen in der deutschen und ostmitteleurop ischen Geschichte der Neuzeit Sie ist Mitarbeiterin am Leipziger Geisteswissenschaftlichen Zentrum Geschichte und Kultur Ostmitteleuropas GWZO Die Frauenpolitik und ihre Inszenierungen an der Wende zum 20 Jahrhundert in Galizien stehen im Mittelpunkt ihres aktuellen Buchprojekts The Testimonies of Russian and American Postmodern Poetry Albena Lutzkanova-Vassileva, 2014-12-18 This book challenges the belief in the purely linguistic nature of contemporary poetry and offers an interpretation of late twentieth century Russian poetry as a testimony to the unforeseen annulment of communist reality and its overnight displacement by a completely unfathomable post totalitarian order Albena Lutzkanova Vassileva argues that because of the sudden invalidation of a reality that had been largely seen as unattained and everlasting this shift remained secluded from the mind and totally resistant to cognition thus causing a collectively traumatic psychological experience The book proceeds by inquiring into a school of contemporary American poetry that has been likewise read as cut off from reality Executing a comparative analysis Vassileva advances a new understanding of this poetry as a testimony to the overwhelming and traumatic impact of contemporary media which have assailed the mind with far more signals than it can register digest and furnish with semantic weight Postcolonial Marketing Communication Arindam Das, Himadri Roy Chaudhuri, Ozlem Sandikci Turkdogan, 2024-04-20 This volume approaches marcomm marketing communication from the phenomenology of markets in the context of the Global South and its postcolonial experiences It provides a fresh perspective to the current paradigm and offers a fresh discourse on the current theories of marketing communication The book demonstrates how marketing communication an essentially Global North discourse reinforcing hegemony can be critiqued and deconstructed

when subjected to postcolonial critical analysis Recognizing as commonplace the Global South has either willingly embraced or been ideologically coerced into adopting a Western marketing communication system This system is evident in its theories and practices mirroring Western themes symbols stories and knowledge frameworks consequently fostering subjectivities that lack critical self reflection and are dependent on Western influences But what remains more interesting is how such an ideological system mediated through a quintessential Global South modernity generates a new habitation of modernity at the margin Essentially a reaction from the Global South perspective the book thoroughly examines the realities around marketing communication discourses The book even engenders alternatives to hegemonic marketing communication discourses and a set of other epistemologies of alternate modernities of equity and justice From African to Turkish from Indian to Canadian first nations Australian Aborigines to Polynesian American postcolonial subjectivities through marcomm across the globe get a voice in the volume The collection in this volume is a decolonizing attempt that thwarts cultural globalization examines colonial discourses cuts across essentialized identities mobilizes resistance interrogates power structures and mechanisms of knowledge production dissemination and legitimization and celebrates the new formed cultural identity of the Third Fourth World The book is essential read for researchers students and practitioners of Marketing who wish to gain a deeper understanding of an oft ignored aspect of marcomm

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2010-09-29 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800 1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region s literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature s participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region s literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region

Mythistory and Narratives of the Nation in the Balkans Tatjana Aleksić, 2007 The idea of this collection is to bring to the forefront various ways in which the literary poetics of Balkan nations interrelates with their national poetics and present recent and innovative explorations of literature and film which actively engage with national poetics a kind of mythopoiesis of the modern Balkans In proposing an approach to the national question that lies distinctly in the liminal space best designated as mythistory the collection brings together two dominant approaches to national discourse The first tends to interpret the nation as a myth an artificial creation an invention even a oedream The other is a mapping of the nation that considers its historically progressive role It is their multifaceted dynamics that brings to the foreground a unique national mythopoetics Mythistory is explored through its multifold engagement with the text as a major element in the universal nationalist discourse as a narrative strategy extensively utilized in Balkan literary and film narratives and as a particular technique in approaching the text Through the insights gained from literary and critical theory historical analysis and cultural anthropology this collection seeks to reveal the application of mythistorical discourse upon narratives responding to nation forming historical events The texts in this collection articulate very distinct agendas of gender identity culture philosophy and aesthetics all interwoven with national problematic but steer away from the definition by which mythistory is relegated to the transparently propagandist

Other Modernisms in an Age of Globalization Djelal Kadir, Dorothea Löbbermann, 2002 Both Modernism and Globalization are concepts that oscillate between homogenization and differentiation each supplying totalizing platforms and sites of resistance Cultural manifestations of difference and accommodation arise producing their own specific temporalities in diverse practices of disparate Modernisms Where Modernism and Globalization meet the antithetical impulses within each serve as an intensifying dynamic for cultural contestation and discursive formations The essays collected in this volume aim at the discrepant formations and multiple temporalities that issue from this dynamic yielding emphatic alterities in modes of cultural and literary production and material culture Discussed are among others the following aspects Redefining Modernism Modernity Modernization Local Concepts and Temporalities of Modernism Global Transfers of Texts and Concepts Reading the Other in of Modernism Places of Modernity in Literature and Film

The Balkans Divided Andrey Ivanov, 1996 The monograph analyses the roots of some of the most significant ethnically based or ethnically worded conflicts in Europe defines their participants rationales and answers the question of how they relate to the issue of European security It is based on two case studies former Yugoslavia and Bulgaria Since the question of secession and self determination is not that clearcut the author analyses this ambiguity and examines the options He discusses the impact of the Balkan crisis on international relations and attempts to go beyond regional security issues and to put the problem of Balkan security into a broader European perspective This includes addressing the question as to whether NATO membership is the only solution to Eastern Europe s security concerns In the last chapter the idea of a regional defense structure is analysed
