The Dangerous Class Clyde Barrow, 2020-10-19 Marx and Engels concept of the lumpenproletariat or underclass an anglicized politically neutral term appears in The Communist

Manifesto and other writings It refers to the dangerous class the social scum that passively rotting mass thrown off by the lowest layers of old society whose lowly status made its residents potential tools of the capitalists against the working class Surprisingly no one has made a substantial study of the lumpenproletariat in Marxist thought until now Clyde Barrow argues that recent discussions about the downward spiral of the American white working class its main problem is that it is not working have reactivated the concept of the lumpenproletariat despite long held belief that it is a term so ill defined as not to be theoretical Using techniques from etymology lexicology and translation Barrow brings analytical coherence to the concept of the lumpenproletariat revealing it to be an inherent component of Marx and Engels analysis of the historical origins of capitalism However a proletariat that is destined to decay into an underclass may pose insurmountable obstacles to a theory of revolutionary agency in post industrial capitalism Barrow thus updates historical discussions of the lumpenproletariat in the context of contemporary American politics and suggests that all post industrial capitalist societies now confront the choice between communism and dystopia Post-marxism Stuart Sim,1998 This is the first source book for this cross disciplinary area It takes students through a wide range of readings from philosophy politics and sociology to human geography international relations and feminist studies Bringing together statements from leading twentieth century thinkers such as Derrida Lyotard Baudrillard and Laclau and Mouffe and with the editor s substantial introduction this is an ideal teaching text inspiring debate about the future of Marxism as a cultural theory Intellectual History Newsletter ,1998

Hill,2007-09-21 The rejection of Marxism by many theorists of the radical democratic project is dangerous according to Hill because it negates any insight into the place of practical reasoning in democratic struggle She defends the notion of practical reasoning or praxis primarily through a clarification of the Gramscian concept of hegemony which offers a far better explanation of the formation of identity and the social than the post Marxism of such theorists as Ernesto Laclau and Chantal

Mouffe a post Marxism that wrongly detaches Gramscian insight from its Marxist materialist base History, Economic History and the Future of Marxism Tom Kemp,1996 New Dictionary of the History of Ideas Maryanne Cline Horowitz,2005 Contains over seven hundred alphabetized cross referenced entries on major ideas in numerous fields and cultures throughout history and includes a reader s guide The Sociology of Elites Michael Hartmann,2007 Are the activities of elites determined by their interest in enlarging their own power and wealth Presenting an overview of the important sociological elite theories this book uses the examples of the world s 5 largest industrialized nations to demonstrate how the elites of a given country are recruited and how they cooperate with one another Post-Marxism Versus Cultural Studies Paul Bowman,2007 An innovative exploration of the ethical and political relationship between Cultural Studies and Post Marxist theory American Studies ,1997 Theory of History in Ortega Y Gasset John Thomas Graham,1997 Following upon Graham s first volume A Pragmatist Philosophy of Life in Ortega y Gasset this one examines Ortega s instrumentalist approach to history which also reflects pragmatist thought of William James and John Dewey in a realist use of general models to formulate a kind of theoretical schematic history culminating in an unfinished twenty year project The Dawn of Historical Reason Reversing the Lens Jun Xing,Lane Ryo Hirabayashi,2003 Reversing the Lens is relevant to anyone who is curious about how video and film can be utilized to expose ethnicity race gender and sexuality as social constructions subject to political contestation and in dialogue with other potential forms of difference BOOK JACKET
