Postcard From Madison:

Madison David Sakrison, 2009 Madison has a rich photographic history much of it in the form of postcards This volume presents more than 200 historical postcard images from the private collection of Madison resident John Powell who has been collecting and trading postcards for more than 20 years The images here reflect Madison s businesses public institutions civic life and civic pride in the first decades of the 20th century With author David Sakrison s engaging text these images offer a unique window into the city as it was and as it saw itself 75 to 100 years ago

Picturing the City Rebecca Zurier, 2006-09-06 Zurier vividly locates the Ashcan School artists within the early twentieth century crosscurrents of newspaper journalism literary realism illustration sociology and urban spectatorship Her compassionate study newly assesses the artists rejection of genteel New York their alignments with mass media and their innovative ways of seeing in the modern city Wanda M Corn author of The Great American Thing Modern Art and National Identity 1915-35 If the Ashcan School brought a special and embracing eye to the city Rebecca Zurier in her richly contextual and impressively interdisciplinary book explains and evokes that historically specific urban vision in all its richness Finally in Picturing the City we have the study these painters have long deserved And we gain new and delightful access to New York City at the moment of its emergence as a compelling embodiment of metropolitan modernity Thomas Bender Director International Center for Advanced Studies New York University Picturing the City is both meticulous and wide ranging in its assessment of the Ashcan artists and their passionate efforts to represent New York It charts their pleasures and problems warmth and prejudices generosity and differences originality and formula It takes seriously their habits as journalists and provides the most complete sense of their immersion in a world of urban spectatorship and vision Rebecca Zurier has written a wonderful timely book that will be a benchmark for any future discussions of them Anthony W Lee author of Picturing Chinatown Art and Orientalism in San Francisco Rebecca Zurier takes us on an intellectually exhilarating and breathtakingly beautiful visual voyage through turn of the century New York City as the Ashcan painters saw it As we watch them learn a new way of looking in the commercially dynamic sensual New York of a century ago we too see that time and place with fresh eyes Inevitably thanks to Zurier the way we look at city life today will change as well Lizabeth Cohen author of A Consumers Republic The Politics of Mass Consumption in Postwar America

Manhattan Churches Richard Panchyk, 2016 Manhattan Churches celebrates the wonderful diversity of churches in New York City s oldest borough The book takes an in depth look at a wide array of awe inspiring structures from Lower Manhattan and Midtown to the Upper East Side Upper West Side and Harlem From Trinity Church and St Patrick s Cathedral to the Little Church Around the Corner and the Cathedral of St John the Divine the city s churches are a fascinating part of New York s religious cultural and architectural history
