areas now empty of yeshivas in lands occupied by Hasidic populations in Poland and even into the lands that would soon become Israel During the economic depression of the 1930s students struggled for food and their leaders journeyed abroad in search for funding but their determination and commitment to the yeshiva system continued Despite the material difficulties that prevailed in the yeshivas there was consistently a full occupancy of students most of them in their twenties Young men from all over the free world joined these yeshivas which were considered the best training programs for the religious professions and rabbinical ordination The outbreak of World War II and the Soviet occupation of first eastern Poland and then Lithuania marked the beginning of the end of the Yeshivas however and the Holocaust ensured the final destruction of the venerable institution The Golden Age of the Lithuanian Yeshivas is the first book length work on the modern history of the Lithuanian yeshivas published in English Through exhaustive historical research of every yeshiva Ben Tsiyon Klibansky brings to light for the first time the stories lives and inner workings of this long lost world At the Blue Moon Again Dominic Bevan Wyndham Lewis,1925 Postcards [c. 1906-1908] ,1906
