The Post-Resurrection Appearance Stories of the Gospel Tradition John E. Alsup, 2007-02-01 The Post Resurrection Appearance Stories of the Gospel Tradition Although there are innumerable studies of the Easter event the spectrum of New Testament research demonstrates an astonishing vacuum regarding a history of tradition analysis of the Easter appearance stories especially in the application of the form critical method This study begins with a methodological review of the more recent literature and challenges the widely accepted view that the appearance stories are to be excluded from consideration of the origins of Easter faith Because of the far reaching confusion over the place of these stories within the complex of the resurrection traditions Part Two scans the distinctions and relationships between them In Part Three the author concentrates upon the appearance stories themselves and raises the following questions Are pre redactional forms discernible If so do such demonstrate by comparison similarities of form and content Does a NT Gattung stand behind them And finally Part Four probes the matter of analogies in the world of primitive Christianity while Part Five summarizes and asks provisionally if observations of a formal nature invite suggestive possibilities for further work on the question of historical experience behind the stories An attempt at critical review of such questions is long overdue

The Post Resurrection Appearance Stories of the Gospel Tradition John E. Alsup, 1975 The Ascension of the Messiah in Lukan Christology Arie W. Zwiep, 2014-04-09 Building on the form critical assessment of the Lukan ascension story LK 24 50 53 Acts 1 1 12 as a rapture story and motivated by the consideration that the monotheistic principle almost inevitably must have led to a reestimate of the meaning and function of rapture in comparison with heathen rapture stories immortalisation and deification the present study seeks to investigate the Lukan ascension story in the light of the first century Jewish rapture traditions Enoch Elijah Moses Baruch Ezra etc The author argues that first century Judaism provides a more plausible horizon of understanding for the ascension story than the Graeco Roman rapture tradition and that Luke develops his rapture christology not as a reinterpretation of the primitive exaltation kerygma G Lohfink but as a response to the eschatological question i e the delay of the parousia so as to secure the unity of salvation history
