Post-Romantic Aesthetics in Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Stefanie John, 2021-06-23 This book demonstrates the legacies of Romanticism which animate the poetry and poetics of Eavan Boland Gillian Clarke John Burnside and Kathleen Jamie It argues that the English Romantic tradition serves as a source of inspiration and critical contention for these Irish Welsh and Scottish poets and it relates this engagement to wider concerns with gender nation and nature which have shaped contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Covering a substantial number of works from the 1980s to the 2010s the book discusses how Boland and Clarke as women poets from the Republic of Ireland and Wales react to a male dominated and Anglocentric lyric tradition and thus rework notions of the Romantic It examines how Burnside and Jamie challenge adopt and revise Romantic aesthetics of nature and environment The book is the first in depth study to read Boland Clarke Burnside and Jamie as post Romantics By disentangling the aesthetic and critical conceptions of Romanticism which inform their inheritance it develops an innovative approach to the understanding of contemporary poetry and literary influence

Coleridge's Play of Mind John Beer, 2010-09-02 Each chapter takes a passage of Coleridge's life and characterizes the nature and function of a playful element in his consciousness

Legacies of Romanticism Carmen Casaloggi, Paul March-Russell, 2013-03-05 This book visits the Romantic legacy that was central to the development of literature and culture from the 1830s onward Although critical accounts have examined aspects of this long history of indebtedness this is the first study to survey both Nineteenth and Twentieth century culture The authors consider the changing notion of Romanticism looking at the diversity of its writers the applicability of the term and the ways in which Romanticism has been reconstituted The chapters cover relevant historical periods and literary trends including the Romantic Gothic the Victorian era and Modernism as part of a dialectical response to the Romantic legacy Contributors also examine how Romanticism has been reconstituted within postmodern and postcolonial literature as both a reassessment of the Modernist critique and of the imperial contexts that have throughout this time frame underpinned the Romantic legacy bringing into focus the contemporaneity of Romanticism and its political legacy This collection reveals the diversity and continuing relevance of the genre in new and exciting ways offering insights into writers such as Browning Ruskin Pater Wilde Lewis MacNeice and Auster Mysticism and the Mind Colleen Marie Pauza,2009 Journal of the Society for Psychical Research Society for Psychical Research (Great Britain),2004
