Crit, 1984 Designer Suburbs Judith O'Callaghan, Charles Pickett, 2012-11-01 In the 1950s 60s and 70s architects like Harry Seidler Robin Boyd Ken Woolley Michael Dysart and Graeme Gunn applied their talents to project homes bringing high end design to the suburbs Backed by Pettit Sevit Merchant Builders and other project builders architects created small deceptively simple houses which transformed the look of suburbia Today the distance between the architectural profession and suburban housing has never been greater with Australia's super sized energy guzzling project homes the biggest in the world With photographs by Max Dupain David Moore Wolfgang Sievers and Eric Sierins alongside original plans Designer Suburbs explores the relationship between architects builders and affordable housing since 1900 and the lessons we can learn from twentieth century designer suburbs Spaces of the Cinematic Home Eleanor Andrews, Stella Hockenhull, Fran Pheasant-Kelly, 2015-07-24 This book examines the ways in which the house appears in films and the modes by which it moves beyond being merely a backdrop for action Specifically it explores the ways that domestic spaces carry inherent connotations that filmmakers exploit to enhance meanings and pleasures within film Rather than simply examining the representation of the house as national symbol auteur trait or in terms of genre contributors study various rooms in the domestic sphere from an assortment of time periods and from a diversity of national cinemas from interior spaces in ancient Rome to the Chinese kitchen from the animated house to the metaphor of the armchair in film noir Designers

Art and Architecture Division, 1987 Couture & Commerce Alexandra Palmer, Royal Ontario Museum, 2001 The 1950s were the golden years of haute couture captured by iconic images of glamorous models wearing dramatic clothes Yet the real women who wore these clothes adapted them to suit their own tastes altered them to extend their life and often could not bear to part with them long after the dresses had outlived their use This gorgeously illustrated book demonstrates why so many of these designs are still in existence and why we are fascinated by them fifty years later Couture and Commerce investigates how and why postwar couture fashion was important in its own day The Paris couture houses survived due to the enthusiasm of the North American fashion press and commercial buyers Alexandra Palmer traces the European haute couture trade with North America by following actual surviving couture dresses from the design house sketch through the model used in New York fashion shows and as a template for copies and knock offs and finally to the consumer Couture and Commerce is a remarkable mixture of accessible text color photographs of the original garments design house sketches and photographs retailers advertisements and society page images Weaving together analysis of the clothes and interviews with those who traded sold and wore couture Alexandra Palmer vividly recreates the 1950s fashion world
