Falola, 2017-09-08 A fundamental question about contemporary Africa is why does Africa remain so poor long after the departure of the European Colonial domination and in the midst of so many natural resources Poverty Reduction Strategies in Africa provides new understandings of the persistent issue of poverty in Sub Saharan Africa and makes recommendations for policy frameworks to help African governments alleviate poverty Each chapters uses case studies to review the old strategies for resolving the problem of poverty in the continent and make the case for new initiatives to address poverty The contributors focus on practical and day to day issues as the best approach to formulate and implement poverty reduction strategies in contemporary Africa This book is invaluable reading for students and scholars of African politics and development Sanitation and Hygiene in Africa: Where do We Stand? Piers Cross, Yolande Coombes, 2013-10-04 The Third African Sanitation and Hygiene Conference was held in Kigali Rwanda in July 2011 It was hosted by the Government of the Republic of Rwanda and the African Ministers Council on Water The meeting attracted extraordinary interest over 1000 people registered and nearly 900 people attended from a total of 67 countries including representatives of 42 African countries The content of AfricaSan 3 was aligned with the needs of countries as defined in country preparation meetings which took place in advance AfricaSan 3 looked to address the country needs and to commitments and country action planning Different groups ministers civil society local government utilities and donors committed to actions to support the goals of AfricaSan The goal of the AfricaSan process is to support countries to achieve the Millennium Development Goal MDG for sanitation and hygiene This book is freely available to download electronically from the IWA Publishing site Sanitation and Hygiene in Africa Where do We Stand takes stock of progress made by African countries through the AfricaSan process since 2008 and the progress needed to meet the MDG on sanitation by 2015 and beyond This book addresses priorities which have been identified by African countries as the key elements which need to be addressed in order to accelerate progress Reviews progress on implementing the eThekweni Declaration to meet the MDG for sanitation and progress generally in Africa It analyses what is needed to accelerate the rate of access to sanitation in Africa Shares advances in the evidence base on sanitation and hygiene in Africa to be able to assist decision makers to overcome key blockages in implementing large scale sanitation and hygiene programs Raises the profile of sanitation and hygiene as a determinant of sustainable development in order to strengthen leadership and advocacy for sustained sanitation and behavior changes This book is essential reading for government staff from Ministries responsible for sanitation sector stakeholders working in NGOs CSOs and agencies with a focus on sanitation and hygiene and water and Sanitation specialists It is also suitable for Masters courses in water and sanitation and for researchers and the donor community

Towards Africa's Renewal Jeggan C. Senghor, Nana.K. Poku, 2017-11-22 Africa still finds itself in the clutches of poverty and underdevelopment The expected benefits from economic restructuring have not been realized and the debt burden continues to weigh heavily on African economies constraining the possibilities of growth Problems that have existed since the 1960s remain and links with the global economy continue to increase but fall short of requirements Against this background it is not surprising that the vast majority of African states will not meet the Millennium Development Goals The search for political systems that can deliver development have been categorized by cynics as old wine in old bottles with new stickers As the dividends from globalization elude Africa in the 21st century it becomes clear that it is a series of failed states rogue states and even stateless states This volume brings together leading researchers and analysts to examine issues and identify policy options which can lead to renewal in Africa It provides an opportunity to reflect and offers a critical multidisciplinary appraisal of the future challenges facing Africa

Trade, Investment and Economic Growth Pooja Lakhanpal, Jaydeep Mukherjee, Biswajit Nag, Divya Tuteja, 2021-05-10 The book contributes to the growing literature pertaining to empirical and policy issues in international trade foreign capital flows and issues in finance implications for India and emerging economies related to trade and development interface and analysis of sector level growth and development in India Further the focus is on the policy aspects of these themes and their role in fostering economic development in the context of India and other emerging market economies The discourse focuses mainly on empirical work and econometric details The relevant issues are investigated using state of the art techniques such as gravity models panel co integration generalized hyperbolic distributions SEM FMOLS and Probit models In addition detailed literature survey discussions on data availability issues related to statistical estimation techniques and a theoretical background ensure that each chapter significantly contributes to the ever growing literature on international trade and capital flows The readers shall find an engaging dialogue on the crucial role played by policy and the trade capital flows growth experience of emerging economies The book is relevant for those who are interested in contemporary issues in trade growth and finance as well as for students of advanced econometrics who may benefit from the analytical and econometric exposition The empirical evidences provided here could serve as ready reference for academicians researchers and policy makers particularly in emerging economies facing similar challenges

Religion, Disability, and Sustainable Development in Africa Chioma Ohajunwa,Kudakwashe 'AK' Dube,Ezra Chitando,2025-02-14 This book investigates the interplay between disability and religion in Africa and what this means in the context of the Sustainable Development Goals The importance of meeting the needs of people with disabilities is highlighted specifically in several Sustainable Development Goals as well as being emphasised as a cross cutting issue across all the goals Over 1 billion people are estimated to be living with disabilities and 80% of this population live in the Global South many within Africa This book argues that within this context religion must be considered as people with disabilities often turn to religion for solace in confronting the daily struggles and pains that they face Drawing on multiple disciplinary lenses this book reflects on how traditional indigenous Abrahamic and other African minority religions and philosophies interact with disability and how this relates to the Sustainable Development Goals The book demonstrates how religions in Africa conceptualise imagine or re imagine disability in the context of key themes such as gender ecological justice health poverty education employment entrepreneurship and migration Overall the book invites researchers from across the social sciences to consider how African religious theological and philosophical ideas can help towards the inclusion of people with disabilities in the 2030 development agenda in Africa The Nigerian Journal of Economic and Social Studies ,2002
