Poverty Growth And Institutions In Developing Asia:

Poverty, Growth and Institutions in Developing Asia E. Pernia, A. Deolalikar, 2003-10-07 The theme of this book is that economic growth is key but institutions and other national and subnational attributes matter as well They are critical to explaining differences in social development and poverty reduction across countries and subnational areas that cannot be accounted for by growth alone The book concludes that a more complete strategy needs to consider various institutional factors at the national and subnational levels to achieve rapid and sustained poverty reduction Indeed paying attention to these factors will benefit both growth and poverty reduction Poverty Reduction and the Role of Institutions in Developing Asia Anil B. Deolalikar, 2002 Based on research covering eight Asian countries Explores developments in analytical approaches to poverty reduction and examines the main political social and cultural institutions that have an impact on poverty reduction Explores how institutions may inhibit or promote poverty reduction efforts and discusses the impact of institutional reform on poverty reduction Poverty Reduction for Inclusive Sustainable Growth in Developing Asia Farhad Taghizadeh-Hesary, Nisit Panthamit, Naoyuki Yoshino, 2021-05-15 This book provides practical policy recommendations that are useful for developing Asia and for accelerating poverty reduction plans in the rest of the world Poverty reduction in all its forms remains one of the greatest challenges facing humanity In developing Asia rapid growth in countries and sub regions such as China India and Southeast Asia has lifted millions out of poverty but progress has been uneven On the other hand the current coronavirus COVID 19 pandemic and the global economic recession that it has caused are pushing millions of people back into poverty Poverty reduction inclusive growth and sustainable development are inseparable and poverty reduction is the premise for sustainable development The Sustainable Development Goals SDGs are a bold commitment to finish what we started and end poverty in all forms and dimensions by 2030 However because of the current global recession the world is not on track to end poverty by 2030 Given the aforementioned situation if we plan to achieve the no poverty target in line with the SDGs governments need to reconsider their policies and economies need to allocate their resources for this aim Owing to the importance of the topic this book provides several thematic and empirical studies on the roles of small and medium sized enterprises local businesses and trusts international remittances and microfinance energy security and energy efficiency in poverty reduction and inclusive growth Poverty, Growth, and Institutions: Seminar papers, 2006 Poverty Reduction Policies and Practices in Developing Asia Almas Heshmati, Esfandiar Maasoumi, Guanghua Wan, 2015-03-31 This book looks at the major policy challenges facing developing Asia and how the region sustains rapid economic growth to reduce multidimensional poverty through socially inclusive and environmentally sustainable measures Asia is facing many challenges arising from population growth rapid urbanization provision of services climate change and the need to redress declining growth after the global financial crisis This book examines poverty and related issues and aims to advance the development of new tools and measurement of multidimensional poverty and poverty reduction policy analysis The book covers a wide range of issues including determinants and causes of poverty and its changes consequences and impacts of poverty on human capital formation growth and consumption assessment of poverty strategies and policies the role of government NGOs and other institutions in poverty reduction rural urban migration and poverty vulnerability to poverty breakdown of poverty into chronic and transitory components and a comparative study on poverty issues in Asia and other regions The book will appeal to all those interested in economic development resources policies and economic welfare and growth Inclusive Growth for Sustainable Poverty Reduction in Developing Asia Ifzal Ali,2004 Is Growth Good Enough for the Poor? Ernesto M. Pernia,2002 The Dynamics of Regional Development A. M. Balisacan, Hal Hill, Asian Development Bank Institute,2007 Examines developments in decentralization during the period 1980 2003 Refers to comparable experiences made in China and Indonesia Focuses on centre region relations the role of infrastructure for a coherent and integrated policy framework and the conflict in Mindanao

Abstracts of Public Administration, Development, and Environment ,2003 Infrastructure as a Catalyst for Regional Integration, Growth and Economic Convergence David W. Roland-Holst,2006 Viet Nam, Foreign Direct Investment and Postcrisis Regional Integration Vittorio Leproux,2004 ADB Publications Asian Development Bank,2005

Restructuring and Regulatory Reform in the Power Sector Peter Choynowski,2004 A worldwide trend began in the 1980s in both developed developing countries to restructure their power sectors reform their regulatory framework The motivation in developed countries to restructure reform was mainly to improve sector efficiency while in the developing countries it was to move the sector away from reliance on scarce public resources to more private sector financing Since the Asian Development Bank was involved in restructuring regulatory reform in many of Asia s developing countries this report takes stock of the progress made to date in these countries reviews the relevant experience in some developed countries Latin America identifies the key issues that could have a bearing on its operations in Asia Preferential Trade Agreements in Asia Fan Zhai,2006 Trade Facilitation Teruo Ujiie,2006 The issue of trade facilitation has been increasingly highlighted among business and trading communities as they would like to reduce the costs of international transactions of goods and services Trade facilitation is a broad term there are a number of international agreements relating to trade facilitation and a number of international organizations involved in this area Recognizing the importance of trade facilitation and after several years of exploratory work on government trade facilitation measures members of the World Trade Organization WTO agreed in July 2004 to include trade facilitation in the multilateral trade negotiations of the Doha Development Agenda DDA This paper examines the issue of trade facilitation in a wider context covering various articles in the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and WTO instruments the World Customs Organization and other international conventions and the state of play of DDA negotiations Based on these discussions conclusions are drawn and recommendations made as to structure modality and substance of an agreement on trade facilitation The Philippines ,2010 Foreign Exchange Reserves,

Exchange Rate Regimes, and Monetary Policy Akiko Terada-Hagiwara, 2005      The Political Economy of Good Governance for Poverty Alleviation Policies Narayan Lakshman, 2003 The motivation of this research paper is to shed light upon the political economy factors that determine the quality of governance for poverty alleviation policies This issue is a crucial one because although remarkable strides have been made in some parts of the world more than 2.8 billion people live on less than $2 a day The situation begs the important question Why have poverty alleviation efforts by developing countries not achieved the momentum necessary to improve the living standards of poor An important reason why growth with significant redistribution has not occurred in many developing countries is that poverty reduction strategies have often been politically naive The literature spawned by major development institutions until the 1980s did not go beyond policy prescriptions to ask under what political conditions redistributive policies could be successfully adopted This is a relevant issue because policies reflect concrete political and social interests and it is not hard to imagine a situation where poverty alleviating reform is hindered by vested interests The aim of this research paper is to shed light upon the factors determining quality of governance because poor governance is but a manifestation of these deep rooted institutional and political biases against the collective interests of the poor      Beyond Liquidity Donghyun Park, 2007      American Book Publishing Record, 2003
