Religion and Political Modernization Donald E. P. Smith, 1974      Political Modernization in Japan and Turkey Robert E. Ward, Dankwart A. Rustow, 2015-12-08 Contributors compare and analyze the modernization experiences of Japan and Turkey John Whitney Hall Halil Inalcik Robert A Scalapino Roderic H Davison William W Lockwood Peter F Sugar R P Dore Frederick W Frey Shuichi Kato Kemal H Karpat Masamichi Inoki Richard L Chambers Roger P Hackett Dankwart A Rustow Nobutaka Ike and Arif T Payaslioglu Originally published in 1964 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Islam and Political Development in Turkey Toprak, 2022-04-19      Religion and Political Modernization Donald Eugene Smith, 1974

Religious Resurgence and Politics in the Contemporary World Emile F. Sahliyah, 1990-01-01 This book examines the highly politicized religious groups and movements that have surfaced since the late 1970s in the United States Central America South Africa the Philippines India and the Middle East Sahliyah and others analyze this trend toward the politicization of religious conservatism and question a number of assumptions central to concepts of modernization For example it has been assumed by development theorists that the interrelated components of modernization would enhance the trend toward secularization of societies This book shows that in many societies today religious revivalism and fundamentalism seem to be direct products of modernization A global comparative approach is utilized to formulate general explanations for religious revivalism and its implications for modernization development and politics      Constellations of Value Christoph Jedan, 2013 In Western public discourse there is a long tradition of opposing secular and religious values In consequence religion has been increasingly excluded from the public domain and relegated to the realm of personal motivation From different perspectives this present collection of essays shows that religion still has an important role to play in the public domain In exploring the possibility of a rapprochement between religious and secular values the book's contributions offer important insights for ongoing debates on the question whether Western and particularly European democracies have entered a post secular phase Series Theorizing the Postsecular International Studies in Religion Politics and Society Vol 1      Women and Development Prof. Jamal Sanad Al-Suwaidi, 2020-01-01 His Excellency Prof Jamal Sanad Al Suwaidi Director General of the Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research has published a new book titled Women and Development which addresses over four chapters major issues relevant to Arab Islamic thought regarding women and their role in development His Excellency believes that women's problems are in fact society's problems and these problems will not be solved without the involvement of government and private organizations and society as a whole Improving the status of women and promoting their participation in development is the concern of the entire country. The author puts forth arguments proving the unsustainable rhetoric voiced by regressive political Islam which sought through selective interpretation of Islamic texts to impose restrictions on the freedom of women and their participation in the development process. The author also provides practical responses to urgent questions regarding the status of women in Islam such as their access to education and presence in labor markets in relation to men. In this regard, the author refers to statistics and survey data as well as analytical readings of the circumstances involving women's rights in GCC countries. In the last chapter, the author explores the status of women in the United Arab Emirates as they set a role model for Gulf and Arab women. This model was shaped by the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan may God rest his soul in peace through his open and insightful thought and implemented through effective policies and programs.

Religion and Political Development, an Analytic Study Donald Eugene Smith, 1970      Modern Greek Folklore and Ancient Greek Religion John Cuthbert Lawson, 1910      Constitutional History and Political Development of the United States Simon Sterne, 1888      Dilemmas of Political Development Monte Palmer, 1985      Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1892      Religion and political culture David M. Herr, 1984      Religion and Political Culture David Manson Herr, 1981      Islamic Political Culture, Democracy, and Human Rights Daniel E. Price, 1999-06-30

What effect does Islamic political culture have on democracy and human rights practices? The author of this book suggests that too much emphasis is being placed on the power of Islam as a political force, stating that the political power of Islam can be better explained by other factors.

Religious Politics in Global and Comparative Perspective William H. Swatos Jr., 1989-09-07

Current social and political theories which tend to dismiss religious resurgence as a deviant occurrence in the broad sweep of history do not provide an adequate framework for the study of the dramatic resurgence of religion as a worldwide political force. This book is the first to address the interplay of religion and politics systematically and on a global scale. Offering interpretive essays as well as quantitative comparative analyses, it develops a comprehensive theoretical framework and presents the most complete comparative account available of the realities of religious politics in the contemporary world. The first of the interpretive chapters focuses on the cultural factor as a means of clarifying the role of religion in the modern world system. The next two chapters examine the concept of the self in the context of globalization and the absence of solidarity as a unifying force in societal systems. The role of ultimate values in politics and the reasons for the emergence of militant religious movements in nation states is also considered. A worldwide study of religious change between 1900 and 1980 gives a clear picture of contemporary global religious movements and formulates a tentative set of explanations of change based on data analysis. The statistical links between religious beliefs and political views and between religion and democracy are explored. The editor's concluding chapter looks at the implications of the author's findings for general theory in the sociology of religion. The editor stresses the need for reconceptualizing basic theoretical constructs.
