Relocating Eden The Image And Politics Of Inuit Exile In The Canadian Arctic:

Relocating Eden Alan R. Marcus, 2016 Nunavut Jens Dahl, Jack Hicks, Peter Jull, 2000 The Nunavut story told in this book by authors who have all been involved with Nunavut and Inuit politics for a very long time is an important one for indigenous peoples around the world and for anyone interested in indigenous issues Stressing the political dynamics of the beginning of Nunavut's autonomous life the authors provide a clear and accurate account of a remarkable political process Following an introductory focus on three fundamental questions Why did Nunavut come to life what are the challenges and opportunities to come and what is to be learned from this experience the book continues with an investigation of Nunavut its history and structure and the most recent developments and their impact on the people of Nunavut Land, Indigenous Peoples and Conflict Alan C. Tidwell, Barry Scott Zellen, 2015-10-05 Land Indigenous Peoples and Conflict presents an original comparative study of indigenous land and property rights worldwide The book explores how the ongoing constitutional legal and political integration of indigenous peoples into contemporary society has impacted on indigenous institutions and structures for managing land and property This book details some of the common problems experienced by indigenous peoples throughout the world providing lessons and insights from conflict resolution that may find application in other conflicts including inter state and civil and sectarian conflicts An interdisciplinary group of contributors present specific case material from indigenous land conflicts from the South Pacific Australasia South East Asia Africa North and South America and northern Eurasia These regional cases discuss issues such as modernization the evolution of systems and institutions regulating land use access and management and the resolution of indigenous land conflicts drawing out common problems and solutions The lessons learnt from the book will be of value to students researchers legal professionals and policy makers with an interest in land and property rights worldwide Relocating Eden Alan R. Marcus, 1995 Addresses lingering questions about government resettlement of Native Canadians and its impact on their lives Moved by the State Tina Loo, 2019-06-01 Why don't they just move This reductive question is asked whenever reports surface of the all too common lack of social services and economic opportunities in Canada's rural and urban communities But why are certain people and places vulnerable And who is responsible for a remedy From the 1950s to the 1970s the Canadian government relocated people often against their will in order to improve their lives Moved by the State offers a completely new interpretation of this undertaking seeing it as part of a larger project of development and focusing on the bureaucrats and academics who designed implemented and monitored the relocations rather than on those who were uprooted In this finely crafted history Tina Loo explores the contradiction between intention and consequence as diverse communities across Canada were resettled In the process she reveals the optimistic belief underpinning postwar relocations the power of the interventionist state to do good The ^AOxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema Janine Marchessault, Will Straw, 2019-03-20 This handbook uncovers the complex social and institutional contexts in which Canadian cinema is made and consumed

The Canadian Rangers P. Whitney Lackenbauer, 2013-05-01 The Canadian Rangers stand sentinel in the farthest reaches of our country For more than six decades this dedicated group of citizen soldiers has quietly served as Canada's eyes ears and voice in isolated coastal and northern communities from coast to coast to coast How does this minimally trained and lightly equipped force make a meaningful contribution to national defence and to building sustainable communities One of Canada's leading experts on northern issues answers this question using official records extensive interviews and on the ground participation in Ranger exercises In this meticulously researched history Lackenbauer reveals why the Rangers have evolved into a flexible inexpensive and culturally inclusive way to promote sovereignty security safety and stewardship This unique organization reflects a successful partnership between the modern state and residents of remote communities a partnership rooted in local knowledge and crosscultural understanding

21st Century Anthropology: A Reference Handbook H. James Birx, 2010-06-10 Highlighting the most important topics issues questions and debates these two volumes offer full coverage of major subthemes and subfields within the discipline of anthropology

Canada's Relationship with Inuit Sarah Bonesteel, 2008 Inuit have lived in Canada's north since time immemorial The Canadian government's administration of Inuit affairs however has been generally shorter and is less well understood than the federal government's relations with First Nations and Métis We hope to correct some of this knowledge imbalance by providing an overview of the federal government's Inuit policy and program development from first contact to 2006 Topics that are covered by this book include the 1939 Re Eskimo decision that gave Canada constitutional responsibility for Inuit post World War II acculturation and defence projects law and justice sovereignty and relocations the E number identification system Inuit political organizations comprehensive claim agreements housing healthcare education economic development self government the environment and urban issues In order to develop meaningful forward looking policy it is essential to understand what has come before and how we got to where we are We believe that this book will be a valuable contribution to a growing body of knowledge about Canada Inuit relations and will be an indispensable resource to all students of federal Inuit and northern policy development

The Politics of Indigeneity Roger Maaka, Augie Fleras, 2005 Indigenous peoples are increasingly uniting around a commonality of concerns needs and ambitions In both New Zealand and Canada these politics challenge the colonial structures that social and political systems are built upon Both countries have accomplished much in their management of indigenous issues New Zealand has begun to right historical wrongs through treaty settlements and to implement bicultural strategies Canada is experimenting with self government for aboriginal peoples Yet there are still many issues to be addresses with recent statistics showing indigenous peoples in bother these countries struggling to balance functioning in everyday life with preserving their cultures This book casts light on the constitutional politics in both countries that are redefining the relationship of indigenous peoples to the state A unique and timely discussion
