Shape Of Pneumatology Studies In The Doctrine Of The Holy Spirit:

The Shape of Pneumatology John McIntyre, 2004-07-01 Addresses one of the most difficult aspects of the doctrine the heterogeneity of the biblical and traditional material from which it is derived and points to the areas where church must act to recover the sense of the immediacy of the Holy Spirit

Faith Seeking Understanding Daniel L. Migliore, 2004-06-14 Daniel Migliore's Faith Seeking Understanding has been a standard introduction to Christian theology for more than a decade. The book's presentation of traditional doctrine in freshly contemporary ways, its concern to hear and critically engage new voices in theology, and its creative and accessible style have kept it one of the most stimulating, balanced, and readable guides to theology available. This second edition of Faith Seeking Understanding features improvements from cover to cover. Besides updating and expanding the entire text of the book, Migliore has added two completely new chapters. The first, Confessing Jesus Christ in Context, explores the unique contributions to Christian theology made by recent theologians working in the African American, Asian American, Latin American, Hispanic, feminist, womanist, and mujerista traditions. The second new chapter, The Finality of Jesus Christ and Religious Pluralism, addresses the growing interest in the relationship of Christianity to other religions and their adherents. Migliore's three delightful theological dialogues are followed by a new appendix, an extensive glossary of theological terms, making the book even more useful to students seeking to understand the history, themes, and challenges of Christian belief.

The Spirit in Public Theology Vincent E. Bacote, 2010-11-01 In The Spirit in Public Theology, Bacote shows how Dutch politician and church leader Abraham Kuyper lived a thoroughly Christian life and explains why Christians need to follow Kuyper by taking their faith into the public sphere. Identifying the characteristics of a true Christian worldview, Bacote demonstrates the need for a public theology that stresses engagement between the church and the world. The Spirit in Public Theology should be required reading for pastors, students, and all Christians who want to take their faith beyond the four walls of the Church.

The Mission of the Triune God Adam Dodds, 2017-07-31 Lesslie Newbigin was arguably the greatest missionary thinker of the twentieth century. After a successful missionary career in South India, Newbigin pioneered missionary engagement with the secular West and resurgent Islam. He also led the way in arguing that the Church's mission can only be understood in light of the doctrine of the Trinity. Over fifty years ago, Newbigin called for the further development of missionary thinking grounded in the Triune being of God. This work is in response to that call. Adam Dodds provides the first in-depth study of Newbigin's trinitarian theology of mission. Dodds constructs a systematic account of the central features of the mission of the Triune God: the Triune being of God, the mission of the Son, the mission of the Holy Spirit, and the mission of the church. This book contributes to our understanding of the work of Lesslie Newbigin, offers a systematic theological account of the mission of the Triune God, and contributes to the retrieval of Christian mission from the theological margins back to a place of central importance to Christian theology.

The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Andrew Louth, 2022-02-17 Uniquely authoritative and wide-ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church It contains over 6 500 cross referenced A Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject from theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship and the bible to the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops other church leaders saints and mystics In this new edition great efforts have been made to increase and strengthen coverage of non Anglican denominations for example non Western European Christianity as well as broadening the focus on Christianity and the history of churches in areas beyond Western Europe In particular there have been extensive additions with regards to the Christian Church in Asia Africa Latin America North America and Australasia Significant updates have also been included on topics such as liturgy Canon Law recent international developments non Anglican missionary activity and the increasingly important area of moral and pastoral theology among many others Since its first appearance in 1957 the ODCC has established itself as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders and an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader

A Charismatic Model of the Church David Y.T. Lee, 2018-06-11 Edward Irving 1792 1834 has been known as a controversial pastor theologian in nineteenth century Britain particularly given his belief that Christ took on sinful flesh in His incarnation This book focuses on Irving s teaching of the church as the body of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and the eschatological community in holiness It explores Irving s emphasis upon the exalted humanity of Christ after His resurrection in relation to the church Such a Christ centred and Spirit empowered concept of the church has relevance to the twenty first century church in China as the Chinese church leaders attempt to reconstruct a contemporary theology of the church

The Doctrine of the Trinity in the Works of John Richardson Illingworth and William Temple, and the Implications for Contemporary Trinitarian Theology Richard Hoskins, 2000 This work illustrates that theologians John Richardson Illingworth and William Temple represent paradigmatically the main strands of trinitarian theology found in the eastern and western churches The extent to which Illingworth represents a so called social trinitarian approach a Temple a so called psychological one is examined The book is theological rather than biographical and as such it studies their respective trinitarian theologies It reveals not only that English theology has something important to offer but that a comparison of two of its representatives from different generations opens up aspects of the relationship These findings are used in conversation with the contemporary trinitarian scene Journal of Theology for Southern Africa ,2004

The Christological Assimilation of the Apocalypse Paul O'Callaghan,2004 Biblical apocalyptic texts that make imminent predictions of the end of the world as we know it have fascinated Christians from the earliest times Understandably over the centuries such texts have been interpreted in a variety of different even opposing ways This is particularly so in twentieth century biblical exegesis Many authors would hold that apocalyptic texts far from truly predicting the end of time final resurrection universal judgement and perpetual separation of just and wicked are to be seen as merely existential or performative expressions of the sinner s radical dependence on a Sovereign Divinity Any kind of literal interpretation of apocalyptic predictions therefore would seem to involve insoluble problems of a scientific ethical and social kind that modern society cannot envisage In this extensive biblical study Prof O Callaghan considers in detail not only the eschatology present in apocalyptic works in general and the complex debate on New Testament eschatology that flourished throughout the last century He has also shown that the powerful apocalyptic message present in the New Testament is essentially an application and direct consequence of Jesus Christ s saving work among humans Principally on the basis of a narrative analysis of Matthew s Christology apocalyptic motifs abound in the first gospel he shows that New Testament apocalyptic as it stands while radical challenging and theologically stimulating is neither irrational nor ethically untenable And this for the simple reason that the Judge who will come at the end of time to save the just and condemn sinners is one and the same Jesus of Nazareth who has already offered the gift of salvation to the whole of humankind

Normativity of the Future Reimund Bieringer,2010 One of the major issues of contemporary theology is the relationship between the past and the present Many see the task of theology as the re interpretation of past traditions for today This focus pays scant attention to the future In recent years theological inquiry into the future and eschatology is surfacing In the past ten years we have developed an eschatological hermeneutics for the interpretation of biblical and other authoritative texts This hermeneutical approach integrates the past present and future dimensions of the interpretive process paying special attention to the future The first part of this book consists of three foundational articles by Reimund Bieringer and Mary Elsbernd about the approach which we have come to call normativity of the future In this part we provide the theoretical foundations of this eschatological hermeneutics The second part of this book contains contributions by Reimund Bieringer Mary Elsbernd Susan M Garthwaite Ma Marilou Ibita Didier Pollefeyt Rolando Tuazon and Thomas A Vollmer who practice this approach in the arenas of Biblical Exegesis Ethics and Religious Education The Journal of Mental Science ,1933

Scrutinizing the Signs of the Times in the Light of the Gospel Johan Verstraeten, 2007 Gaudium et spes Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World was promulgated on December 7 1965 It mirrors a new spirit of openness of the Catholic Church to the world as well as a new historical consciousness based on a self understanding of the Catholic Church as linked with mankind and its history by the deepest bonds GS 1 This historical consciousness resulted in a method of social discernment which inspired by John XXIII was articulated by Gaudium et spes in terms of scrutinizing the signs of the times and of interpreting them in the light of the gospel GS 4 Conscious of the need to revisit the pastoral constitution of Vatican II the Centre for Catholic Social Thought at the Catholic University of Leuven has organised two international expert seminars The first expert seminar 6 7 September 2003 was rather explorative and focused on the relevance of catholic social thought in its actual context with special attention paid to the signs of the times in an era of globalisation The discussion on the contemporary signs of the times revealed the necessity to clarify the theoretical and practical implications of the methodology of social discernment and particularly of a social hermeneutic in the light of the gospel This became the theme of a second expert seminar Leuven Louvain la Neuve 9 11 September 2004 the discussions of which are the background to this book Introduction to the Study of Religion Nehemiah M. Nyaundi, 2003 Life in Christ Mark A. Garcia, 2008 In three wide ranging case studies Garcia explores how union with Christ functions in Calvin's thought Garcia explains the way Calvin understands the apostle Paul to connect good works to eternal life in the context of union with Christ He then turns his attention to the relationship of christology and pneumatology in sacramental union or communion with Christ The third study investigates the role of Christ the Spirit and the Eucharist in Calvin's critique of Osiander's views on justifying union with Christ Heythrop Journal, 1998 A select book list appears quarterly Current Contents, 1999 Spirituality and Quality of Life Rico Palaca Ponce, 2005 The Cumulative Book Index, 1998 A world list of books in the English language
