Shaping The Moral Life An Approach To Moral Theology:

Shaping the Moral Life Klaus Demmer, 2000-10-27 Although he is one of the most influential Catholic theologians in Europe very few of Klaus Demmer's writings are available in English This translation of his well known work on moral theology introduces Demmer's thought to English speaking audiences In an original synthesis of scholastic and continental philosophy Demmer brings the Catholic moral tradition into conversation with contemporary philosophical schools transcendental hermeneutical and analytical to fashion a moral theology in the spirit of the Second Vatican Council He shows the richness of the neoscholastic tradition in shaping and being shaped by our contemporary self understanding A complete bibliography of Demmer's works will assist readers in seeking out more of his writings Catholic Moral Theology in the United States Charles E. Curran, 2008-04-11 In this magisterial volume Charles E Curran surveys the historical development of Catholic moral theology in the United States from its 19th century roots to the present day He begins by tracing the development of pre Vatican II moral theology that with the exception of social ethics had the limited purpose of training future confessors to know what actions are sinful and the degree of sinfulness Curran then explores and illuminates the post Vatican II era with chapters on the effect of the Council on the scope and substance of moral theology the impact of Humanae vitae Pope Paul VI's encyclical condemning artificial contraception fundamental moral theology sexuality and marriage bioethics and social ethics Curran's perspective is unique For nearly 50 years he has been a major influence on the development of the field and has witnessed first hand the dramatic increase in the number and diversity of moral theologians in the academy and the Church No one is more qualified to write this first and only comprehensive history of Catholic moral theology in the United States Moral Theology in an Age of Renewal Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor, 2003 This study offers a comprehensive survey of developments in moral theology since the Second Vatican Council The author discusses the call of the Council for the renewal of moral theology and the role the Council itself played in this renewal Odozor also explores the various issues and controversies which have marked the discipline since the 1960s The dramatic changes and developments in moral theology during this period rival any in the history of the Church of Christian morality natural law scripture and ethics moral norms the Church's teaching authority virtue ethics and casuistry Odozor provides a constructive proposal for a common ground which makes these debates in moral discourse possible ethicists systematic theologians and anyone interested in Catholic cultural and intellectual history since Vatican II Love of Friendship in the Christian Life Jonathan Sammut, 2019-12-27 Theological reflection on friendship as a particular form of Christian love emerges in Holy Scripture and continues to be elaborated in the Christian tradition However love of friendship was at times absorbed into the other traditional understanding of love love of God and of neighbor After a philosophical historical study of the Greco Roman roots of friendship in moral reflection and how and to what extent this was appropriated in the Christian tradition this book illustrates the transcendental character and the novelty of the Christian understanding of friendship found in Holy Scripture focusing particularly on the most relevant texts in the Fourth Gospel where love and friendship stand to be important themes. It also shows how Saint Thomas Aquinas through his exegesis of the Fourth Gospel his synthesis of the Christian tradition and his ability to rearticulate Christian theology through Aristotelian philosophy inimitably defines the theological virtue of caritas as friendship with God. In so doing he depicts friendship as the finality the telos of the Christian life. Finally the book aims to show how the retrieval of a proper theology of friendship rooted in Holy Scripture and Christian tradition can enrich the life of an authentic Christian and contribute to the ongoing process of renewing moral theology.

Notes on Moral Theology Richard A. McCormick, 1984-09-26 Composed of articles originally appearing in Theological studies

A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology. The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one. The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular. After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War. The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical. Fritz Tillmann asks whether it is adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it is adequately spiritual. Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ. Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation. But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians. At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience. In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation. Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents. In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism. In Latin America liberation theology. In North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturism. At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally.

United States Welfare Policy Thomas Massaro, 2007 The Welfare Reform Act of 1996 drastically changed the delivery of social services in the US. This title uses Catholic social teaching as a lens through which to view contemporary American welfare policies citing the tradition's emphasis on serving the needy including a preferential option for the poor and the common good.

Method and Catholic Moral Theology Todd A. Salzman, 1999 This work is an investigation of the ongoing methodical reconstruction of Catholic moral theology. As such it is based on and honors the work of Norbert Rigali S J one of the most important contributors to this reconstruction. The decisive break from the traditional manual approach to moral theology represented by Vatican II reoriented moral theology away from universal natural law morality based on the commandments to a morality based on specifically Christian sources This reorientation however was not an either or but a both and proposition Father Norbert Rigali S J has been an inspiration and a challenge to moral theologians working toward reconstruction The essays in this collection address four questions in the renewal movement an investigation of normative methods a clarification of sources an investigation of the tension between natural law morality and Christian ethics and or morality and a combination of methodical insights of philosophy with traditional Christian sources in their investigation of biomedical ethical issues The contributors to the collection include Richard M Gula S S Joseph A Selling Bernard Hoose Mark O Keefe O S B James F Keenan S J Edward Collins Vacek S J Charles E Curran James J Walter Todd A Salzman Jean Porter Lisa Sowle Cahill and Richard A McCormick S J
