Share The Care An Evaluation Of A Familybased Respite Care Service:

The Children Act Great Britain. Dept. of Health,1991 How will the Children Act affect work with disabled children This guidance outlines the responsibilities of social services departments SSDs under the Act stating that they have a clear duty to provide services to children with disabilities Treating disabled children as children first is of paramount importance However there is a need for all staff who may be involved in providing a service to a child with a disability to be aware of legislation and SSDs should ensure that advice expertise and resources are available for their staff when needed "Share the Care"

Kirsten Stalker,1990 Share the Care examines the different ways in which respite care schemes operate focusing in particular on the Share the Care service in Lothian and the experience of parents of children with learning difficulties of using the scheme respite carers families facing an extended wait for respite and families who withdraw from the scheme

Social Service Abstracts ,1990-04 Health Care Needs Assessment Dr. Andrew Stevens,2004 Providing vital updates this two volume set describes the central role and aim of health care needs assessment in the NHS health care reforms and explains the epidemiological approach to needs assessment and the effectiveness and availability of services

Prevention and Reunification in Child Care Peter Marsh,John Triseliotis,1993 This detailed symposium explores two of the most sensitive issues in child care preventing the break up of the family and facilitating when possible the return of the child to its own parents Innovations in Family Support for People with Learning Disabilities Peter J. Mittler,Helle

Mittler,1994 Nursing Times, Nursing Mirror ,1992 Journal of Gerontological Nursing ,1991 Towards a Full Life David Felce,1998-06-29 This book describes the results and implications of a sustained programme of research into a national policy to improve the quality of life and social standing of people with learning disabilities It provides a case study of policy implementation from the perspectives of those involved Research findings and universally applicable approaches are presented in a readable manner for busy practitioners The focus is on the All Wales Strategy a mould breaking national policy which has direct relevance to all who are concerned about responsive person centred community care The book draws out principles which have a bearing on multi disciplinary practice at the levels of individual service provision and policy formulation Child Welfare Outcome Research in the United States, United Kingdom, and Australia Anthony N.

Maluccio, Frank Ainsworth, June Thoburn,2000 Ideally there is a close interaction between research and practice in human services and program planning is based on such interaction particularly the findings of outcome research This book reviews the bodies of outcome research about child welfare programs from the United States the United Kingdom and Australia particularly outcomes in relation to service effectiveness duration of child placement permanency planning and child development and functioning The purpose of the book is to give child welfare administrators policymakers practitioners and academics a comprehensive picture of the current state of child welfare knowledge Chapter 1 discusses issues related to carrying out outcome research and describes the different service systems in the three countries Chapter 2 examines outcome research in traditional services such as kinship care family foster care treatment foster care residential group care and adoption Chapter 3 reviews research findings related to outcomes of more recent service initiatives including family preservation family reunification preparation for independent living the Looking After Children administrative materials used in the United Kingdom family group decision making shared family care and wraparound services The book concludes by asserting that there are a number of gaps in the available research including limited comparative studies of the outcomes of such services as adoption family foster care and residential care and limited attention to the dimension of race and ethnicity Recommendations include greater attention to the role of race and ethnicity and more cross national research Appended is an annotated bibliography of texts that consider outcome research in child protective services Contains 399 references KB

Punishment Under Pressure Bob Broad,1991 Arguing that while certain aspects of the probation service community developments are suitable for addressing social problems in inner city areas progressive probation practices retain innovatory status The book examines the construction and presentation of Social Inquiry Reports anti racism group work probation clients and unemployment the disproportionate number of black people in custodial institutions and inter agency work Group Homes and Community Integration of Developmentally Disabled People Janice C. Sinson,1993 The author addresses the issue of the quality of life for those moving from hospital to group home to community placement and asks whether group homes are doing what they originally set out to do or albeit dictated by financial constraints and current political policy whether are simply creating a form of micro institutionalisation Her book stresses the ad hoc and fragmented approach to community integration by both her health and local authorities with those being moved not necessarily finding themselves living in a less institutionalised way of life Perspectives in Personality ,1991 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1991 Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies

Appropriations for 1997 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations.
