Shared Wisdom A Guide To Case Study Reflection In Ministry:

Shared Wisdom Jeffrey H. Mahan, Barbara B. Troxell, Carol J. Allen, 1993 Three authors well acquainted in the area of field education evaluate events in ministry using case study analysis They outline the case process preparing presenting and discussing a case and analyze the implications of the process Each chapter offers a biblical image which connects the case process with the dynamic Christian tradition Readers will learn techniques for writing case studies and will come to understand how to use imagination and analogy to provoke theological reflection

Religion and Popular Culture in America Bruce David Forbes, Jeffrey H. Mahan, 2000 An edited volume looking at the intersection of Religion and Popular Culture in America

Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries

Welcome to Theological Field Education! Lee Carroll, Jaco Hamman, Barbara J. Blodgett, Lorraine Ste-Marie, Joanne Lindstrom, Sarah B. Drummond, 2010-12-21 Field education is an opportunity for students to develop ministry skills practice ministerial reflection discern their call experience professional collegiality and undergo personal transformation Field education offers them a place to practice ministry and a space to reflect on it to integrate theory and practice and grow towards competency In Welcome to Theological Field Education eleven directors of field education in seminaries and divinity schools across North America pass on their wisdom to both students and their supervisors Edited by Matthew Floding director of field education at Western Seminary in Holland Michigan this volume covers critical topics such as the art of supervision and formation the use of case studies and peer reflection groups self care and ministerial ethics and assessment Formation for ministry is especially challenging at this time in the church s life First the explosion of knowledge pluralism and consumerism and a host of other complicating factors make huge demands on what a minister must know to be effective in ministry Second with the erosion of thick religious subcultures the novice minister has fewer sources of practical wisdom to draw upon The next generation of ministers if they are to be more fully formed for ministry depends on skilled mentoring alongside wise supervisors This book is the tool to help them make the most of their field education experience

What are They Saying about Theological Reflection? Robert L. Kinast,2000 Theological reflection is a form of theologizing that begins with lived experience correlates this with the sources of Christian faith and draws out concrete implications for praxis Robert Kinast finds five distinct types of theological reflection from within this common form ministerial spiritual wisdom feminist inculturation and practical theology Each of these styles is analyzed in terms of the type of experience it favors the way it connects this experience to theology and what sort of praxis it envisions The end result is a succinct overview of this wide ranging and diverse approach to theology BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Brimming with God Barbara J. Blodgett,Matthew Floding,2015-08-13 The yearning to be a theologian is widespread Pastors students supervisors and mentors all wish to think theologically about their ministries but often feel inadequately prepared This book seeks to respond by showcasing a variety of approaches to theological reflection brought to bear upon actual situations in ministry It is written by theological field educators We define theological reflection as reflection upon lived embodied experiences in ministry that seeks to make sense of practice and form reflectors in habits for competent ministry An introductory chapter defines theological reflection as practiced within field education and points readers toward a diversity of approaches Eleven subsequent chapters present two reflections upon the same case each reflection written by a different author and representing a different reflection method The book s significance is as a resource for teaching theological reflection in a range of settings It not only offers a definition of and rationale for theological reflection but models various approaches to it Its use of cases furthermore models the use of case studies in theological education and pastoral practice more widely Writing Theology Well Lucretia Yaghjian,2006-11-24 In its creative integration of the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology Writing Theology Well provides a standard text for theological educators engaged in the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it will also encourage excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts Restoring Life in Christ Øyvind Eide,Øyvind Eide,2008 Research Activities Report Rush-Presbyterian-St. Lukes Medical Center (Chicago).,1994 The Cumulative Book Index ,1995 A world list of books in the English language Canadian Periodical Index ,1995 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R
