Sermons on the First Readings: Cycle C Steven E. Albertin, Charles D. Reeb, Richard Gribble, 2003. Filled with wit, insight, and inspiration, this anthology includes sermons for every Sunday and major celebration throughout the Christian year based on the First Readings from Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary. Three outstanding preachers from diverse denominational backgrounds interpret texts from the Old Testament and Acts in fresh ways that proclaim the good news for the twenty-first century. Their powerful messages remind us that the Hebrew scriptures are much more than just ancient history and explore what they mean for us today. Proclaiming timeless themes of justice and righteousness as well as God's faithful covenant and enduring forgiveness, these imaginative homilies call us to lead better, more God-centered lives. This is an essential resource that's useful for fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts, preaching illustrations, a clearer understanding of scripture passages, adult study and discussion groups, personal devotions, and Bible study on each Sunday's texts. The illustrations in these sermons, taken from both classical and common sources as well as personal experiences, are worth the price of the book. I'll buy any book of sermons that gives me one or two good illustrations that are fresh and believable. Charles Reeb is a master at illustrating his points. John K.
