- People believe what they overhear more than what they are told directly. Expose Buddhists to the witness of the community. Let them overhear of God's grace at work in people's lives.
- Make witnessing to Christ a dialogue and not just a monologue.
- Ask questions about what they believe and practice.
- Raise questions that are issues for them. In John 4 the woman raised a question that was important in her social setting.
- Learn about Buddhism in order to anticipate objections that they may have and build this into your sharing of the content of the Gospel.
