It surveys the work of China's most influential dramatists, directors and performance groups with a special focus on Beijing-based playwright, director and filmmaker Meng Jinghui, the former enfant terrible of Beijing theater who is now one of Asia's foremost theater personalities. Through an extensive critique of theories of modernism and the avant garde, the author reassesses the meanings, functions and socio-historical significance of this work in non-Western contexts by proposing a new theoretical construct, the pop avant garde, and exploring new ways to understand and conceptualize aesthetic practices beyond Euro-American cultures and critical discourses.
