Sheffield , Media Building Will Mari,Carole O'Reilly,E. James West,2025-10-11 This book brings together leading scholars to interrogate the enduring and evolving relationship between journalism mass communications and the built environment From the emergence of the first newspapers media buildings have provided their producers and consumers with a definable shape and served as key nodes in the urban geography of communications At the same time the changing form and function of media buildings has both reflected and reified transformations in modern journalism and mass communication Environment and Planning ,2007 The Architects' Journal ,2005-03 The British Art Journal ,2004

Sheffield Ruth Harman,John Minnis,Roger H. Harper,2004-01-01 Sheffield has been synonymous with steelmaking since the eighteenth century and with cutlery for centuries before that But while it has an extraordinary variety of industrial buildings connected to its metal trades there is another side to what is England s least known big city Set amidst magnificent scenery it has some surprising survivals of its earlier history as well as handsome public commercial and religious buildings designed by its Victorian local architects The leafy western suburbs that rise towards the Peak District were described by Sir John Betjeman as the finest in England The 1950s and 60s saw the city famed for its innovative public housing university buildings and churches After the decline of its manufacturing sector in the 1980s major new venues for sport and entertainment the prize winning Peace Gardens and exciting new buildings such as the Millennium Galleries Winter Garden and Persistence Works are visible signs of a renaissance in the city s fortunes This is the first comprehensive architectural guide to Sheffield It describes the buildings of the city centre and those of the inner suburbs within a two mile radius of it It also covers the lower Don valley still the heart of Sheffield s steel industry the outer suburbs to the west where those who made their fortunes from it lived in splendour and there are excursions to some outstanding buildings on the outskirts Major buildings including the Town Hall the two Cathedrals and the Winter Garden are given more detailed treatment as are the two Universities The central areas are the subject of walks those further out have suggested tours by car Illustrated throughout in colour with specially commissioned photographs and with these images augmented by historic maps paintings and drawings Sheffield will enable residents to look at familiar buildings in a fresh light and encourage visitors to discover for themselves the city s enticing contrasts of industrial heritage and natural beauty Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians,2005 Includes special issues The Archaeological Journal ,2006 Choice ,1964 Newsletter ,1999 Jewish Heritage in Britain and Ireland Sharman Kadish,2015 This comprehensive gazetteer and guide to historic synagogues and Jewish heritage sites in Britain and Ireland has been fully revised and updated in this second edition and celebrates in full colour the undiscovered heritage of Anglo Jewry Frank Brangwyn 1867-1956 Frank Brangwyn, Leeds (England). City Art Gallery, Glynn Vivian Art Gallery, 2006 Keeping the Lid on Logie Barrow, Susan Finding, François Poirier, 2010 The contributors to this book have explored various aspects of urban imagination so intimately related to a peculiar social environment They are historians and geographers linguists and cultural students Their methodologies are very different their sources poles apart And yet they address the same object of study social and spatial segregation and urban eruptions though severally defined from epidemics to anarchist scares urban uprisings to mental maps or the reverberations of urban memories in song novels and museums Case studies consider the towns of Liverpool London Hull New York Salvador de Bahia or more generally France and America The networks created among intellectuals and labourers anarchists and migrants or the lack of communication between those who feel oppressed rioters strikers anti vaccination protesters and those in control are a further common denominator In a way urban epidemics were the epitome of the repulsive character large cities possessed in the eyes even of their own inhabitants If they were the receptacle of so many foreigners and shady political characters if they were the scenes of social and ethnic conflict and violence and promiscuity and prostitution and drunkenness and pauperism they were of necessity a festering sore which nothing could eradicate It is strange that something of this fear should linger on today otherwise how can one explain the lacunae in the official memory of museums despite the cultural efforts produced in the opposite direction with Ackroyd's love for East End London with the revival of a Little Italy in every major American city with the nostalgic folklorisation of past miseries in Salvador de Bahia and in popular song What sense of belonging can be generated by an obliteration of the past what dynamic local culture can spring from an absence from a hole in collective memory This book goes some way to filling those gaps Architectural Publications Index ,2001 Art Libraries Journal ,2006 American Book Publishing Record ,2003 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 The British National Bibliography Cumulated Subject Catalogue ,1955
