Sheffield Wednesday Head To Head:

Get Your Head in the Game Dominic Stevenson, 2020-12-08 Get Your Head in the Game is the first book to tackle the issue of mental health and its relationship with the most popular sport in the world football. Football is more than just a sport; the pitch reveals emotion in the extreme from the glory of goals, the thrill of comradeship, the rollercoaster of club loyalty through to the immense pressure of expectation, fear of injury and crushing defeat. Fans, players, managers, coaches and even those new to the sport can't help but be swept up by the drama at the heart of the beautiful game. But when players at the peak of their physical fitness commit suicide or poor mental health derails careers, there can still be a stunned silence in the community, a lack of connection. In Get Your Head in the Game, Dominic Stevenson, a writer, player, coach and lifelong football obsessive, interviews a diverse cross section of characters in the football world from fans to managers, from players at the start of their careers to retired veterans, women's football stars, international celebrities, refugee footballers and mental health professionals. Football is more than just a sport. The pitch reveals emotion in the extreme from the glory of goals, the rollercoaster of club loyalty through to the immense pressure of expectation, fear of injury and crushing defeat. Fans, players, managers, coaches and even those new to the sport can't help but be swept up by the drama of the beautiful game. But when players at the peak of their physical fitness commit suicide or poor mental health derails careers, there can still be a stunned silence in the community, a lack of connection. Dominic Stevenson, a writer, player, coach and lifelong football obsessive, interviews a diverse cross section of characters in the football world to try to understand this lost connection between the sport and the mind. This book contains contributions from internationally renowned players such as Sam Hutchinson, Chris Kirkland, Ella Masar, John Harkes and Iffy Onoura. From voices at top clubs around the globe including Manchester United, Paris Saint Germain, Chelsea and DC United to the stories of smaller clubs and unsung heroes behind the scenes, Dominic reveals personal battles both on and off the pitch, touching on anxiety, depression, discrimination, trauma, identity and recovery.

The Bottom Corner Nige Tassell, 2016-09-01 In these days of oligarch owners, superstar managers and players on sky-high wages, the tide is turning towards the lower reaches of the pyramid as fans search for football with a soul. Plucky underdogs or perennial underachievers, your local non-league team offers hope, drama or at least a Saturday afternoon ritual that's been going for decades. Nige Tassell spends a season in the non-league world. He meets the raffle ticket seller who wants her ashes scattered in the centre circle, the envelope salesman who discovered a future England international. The ex-pros still playing with undiluted passion on Sunday mornings. He spends time at clubs looking for promotion to the Football League, clubs just aiming to get eleven players on a pitch every week and everything in between. One thing unites them: they all inhabit the heartland of the beautiful game. The Bottom Corner is a wonderful journey through life in the lower reaches of the football pyramid. A fascinating tale of a very different world of football from that of the overpaid stars of the television age. Barry Davies
