Shehu Shegari My Vision Of Nigeria:

My Vision of Nigeria Shehu Usman Aliyu Shagari, 1981 My Vision of Nigeria Aminu Tijjani, David Williams, 2012-11-12
Published in 1981 My Vision of Nigeria is a valuable contribution to the field of History The Inaugural Addresses and Ascension Speeches of Nigerian Elected and Non-Elected Presidents and Prime Minister, 1960-2010 Solomon Williams Obotetukudo, 2010-11-04
From Balewa's declaration Today is Independence Day to Azikiwe's impassioned plea Let us bind the nation's wound and let us heal the breaches of the past so that in forging our nation there shall emerge on this continent a hate free fear free and greed free people to Buhari's patriotic fervor This generation of Nigerians have no other country than Nigeria to Obasanjo's confident commitment I will not spare any effort in rising to this challenge of building firmly and decisively on our achievements and to Yar Adua's clarion call Let us set aside cynicism Let us discard the habits of low expectations Let us join together now words by Nigerian leaders invoke common threads that are essential for nationbuilding In a democracy words initiate a relationship between leaders and citizens a relationship deepened by sacred trusts not easily broken This collection of inaugural and ascension speeches facilitates comparison of presidential themes leadership styles personal philosophies and evolutionary communication strategies in Nigerian nationbuilding Each chapter opens with biographical notes on the speaker followed by an introduction to the prevalent political climate and ends with the leader's unabridged speech Der Islam-Komplex Klaus Hock, 1996 Defence Policy of Nigeria: Capability and Context Charles Quarker Dokubo, Celestine Oyom Bassey, 2011-01-20
This Reader provides a structurally coherent explanation and review of the magnified role conception and organizational task expansion for the Nigerian military establishment in foreign policy It argues essentially that one of the most problematic and intractable areas of public policy in Nigeria since the Civil War concerns the development of a professional defence establishment adequate to meet the challenges arising from the altered parameters of our security environment The correction of this condition is the primary motivation of the Armed Forces modernization and augmentation program that touches upon all elements of Nigeria's military power This Reader is at once a review and a critique of the major facets of this modernization and augmentation process of the Nigerian armed forces within the operative context of the changing dimension of threat perception and the strategic parameters that have guided Nigerian military planning since the Civil War in 1970 Nigerian Foreign Policy under Military Rule, 1966-1999 Olayiwola Abegunrin, 2003-02-28
Abegunrin provides a significant and comprehensive examination of Nigerian foreign policy 1966-1999 during the almost 33 years of military rule punctuated by the four year civilian interregnum 1979-1983 He analyzes what led to the military rule in 1966 and the foreign policy performance of each military regime that ruled the country since 1966 He also discusses extensively the economic dimension of the nation's foreign policy He shows that the last 15 years the period of Generals Babangida and Abacha were the most corrupt and brutal that Nigeria had seen since independence The mysterious sudden death of General Sani Abacha led to the appointment of General Abubakar who handed power over to an elected civilian government in May 1999 led by President Olusegun Obasanjo Of particular interest to scholars students and other researchers involved with African politics and foreign policy and the role of the military in political affairs Background Notes, Nigeria ,1982 The Nigerian Field ,1982 Includes section Society notices
