Hogle, 1989-01-12 In this set of thorough and revisionary readings of Percy Bysshe Shelley's best known writings in verse and prose Hogle argues that the logic and style in all these works are governed by a movement in every thought memory image or word pattern whereby each is seen and sees itself in terms of a radically different form For any specified entity or figure to be known for what it is it must be reconfigured by and in terms of another one at another level which must then be dislocated itself In so delineating Shelley's process Hogle reveals the revisionary procedure in the poet's various texts and demonstrates the powerful effects of radical transference in Shelley's visions of human possibility Shelley's Mythmaking Harold Bloom, 1969

Inscription and Modernity John Kenneth MacKay, 2006-09-19 Inscription and Modernity charts the vicissitudes of inscriptive poetry produced in the midst of the great and catastrophic political social and intellectual upheavals of the late 18th to mid 20th centuries Drawing on the ideas of Geoffrey Hartman Perry Anderson Fredric Jameson and Jacques Rancière among others John MacKay shows how a wide range of Romantic and post Romantic poets including Wordsworth Clare Shelley Hlderlin Lamartine Baudelaire Blok Khlebnikov Mandelstam and Rolf Dieter Brinkmann employ the generic resources of inscription both to justify their writing and to attract a readership during a complex historical phase when the
