The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1985 Ports of the World Cindy McCreery,1999 This book showcases some of the finest examples of The National Maritime Museum s collection of prints of ports from this period Prints are analysed as commercial and art objects rather than as simple historical records of matters maritime The aim is to address a broad audience including general readers of eighteenth and nineteenth century British and colonial history those interested in ports and maritime affairs and those with an interest in prints themselves The eighteenth and nineteenth centuries were a period of enormous political and commercial development across the globe Of particular importance was the revolution in transportation and communication by sea with the concomitant growth in size and importance of the seaport Despite growing awareness that the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries were a formative period in the development of maritime art there has been relatively little exploration of maritime prints This is extraordinary since the period c 1700 1870 was a golden age of print production and saw the development of new forms of engraving such as aquatint and lithography as well as the production of beautiful examples of line engraving and woodcut The eighteenth and nineteenth centuries saw the establishment and expansion of major ports not just in Britain but in continental Europe Africa Asia Australia and in North and South America The National Maritime Museum upon which collection this book is based is at the centre of the preservation and display of Britain s maritime heritage Its print collection reveals the firm link between art and commerce in the development of these ports
