Positif 50 Years Selected Writings From The French Film Journal:

Positif 50 Years Michel Ciment, Laurence Kardish, 2002-12-09 In 2002 the French film magazine Positif marked 50 years of continuous publication This book which celebrates that milestone consists of a selection of more than 40 articles and reviews translated into English that appeared in the magazine over 5 decades This volume accompanied a 50 film exhibition under the auspices of The Museum of Modern Art NY The exhibition and this book focus on films and filmmakers that Positif helped discover Positif has consistently championed independently spirited idiosyncratic and original cinema from America France and around the world In the last decade of the 20th century Positif was among the first to detect the emergence of a new generation of Asian filmmakers Illustrations

The Cinema of Urban Crisis Lawrence Webb, 2025-10-01 In the 1970s cities across the United States and Western Europe faced a deep social and political crisis that challenged established principles of planning economics and urban theory At the same time film industries experienced a parallel process of transition the effects of which rippled through the aesthetic and narrative form of the decade s cinema The Cinema of Urban Crisis traces a new path through the cinematic legacy of the 1970s by drawing together these intertwined histories of urban and cultural change Bringing issues of space and place to the fore the book unpacks the geographical and spatial dynamics of film movements from the New Hollywood to the New German Cinema showing how the crisis of the seventies and the emerging postindustrial economy brought film and the city together in new configurations Chapters cover a range of cities on both sides of the Atlantic from New York Philadelphia and San Francisco to London Paris and Berlin Integrating analysis of film industries and production practices with detailed considerations of individual texts the book offers strikingly original close analyses of a wide range of films from New Hollywood The Conversation The King of Marvin Gardens Rocky to European art cinema Alice in the Cities The Passenger Tout va Bien and popular international genres such as the political thriller and the crime film Focusing on the aesthetic and representational strategies of these films the book argues that the decade s cinema engaged with and helped to shape the passage from the urban crisis of the late sixties to the neoliberal urban renaissance of the early eighties Splicing ideas from film studies with urban geography and architectural history the book offers a fresh perspective on a rich period of film history and opens up new directions for critical engagement between film and urban studies

Mourning Films Richard Armstrong, 2012-09-13 The first in depth study of its subject this book seeks to account for a type of modernist film that revolves around bereavement Identifying the roots of the genre in classical melodrama and horror cinema and tracing perennial themes and aesthetic devices through to the European and American intellectual melodramas of the postwar decades the book provides a taxonomy of characteristics In the course of detailed case studies the book deploys the film theory of Gilles Deleuze and Daniel Frampton while making use of Freudian psychoanalysis and present day grief counseling theory In making its case for the new genre the book reflects upon the ways in which the very notion of genre has in the post classical period responded to changing exhibition patterns the rise of domestic spectatorship and the proliferation of Web based film literature Positif 50 Years Michel Ciment, Laurence Kardish, 2002 A pre eminent film magazine since its inception the monthly Positif has always been at the forefront of critical thought discerning trends in cinema as they are happening This compendium reveals some of the accomplishments the magazine has had throughout its existence

Surrealism, Cinema, and the Search for a New Myth Kristoffer Noheden, 2017-06-28 This book examines post war surrealist cinema in relation to surrealism s change in direction towards myth and magic following World War II Intermedial and interdisciplinary the book unites cinema studies with art history and the study of Western esotericism closely engaging with a wide range of primary sources including surrealist journals art exhibitions and writings Kristoffer Noheden looks to the Danish surrealist artist Wilhelm Freddie s forays into the experimental short film the French poet Benjamin P ret s contribution to the documentary film L Invention du monde the Argentinean born filmmaker Nelly Kaplan s feature films and the Czech animator Jan Svankmajer s work in short and feature films The book traces a continuous engagement with myth and magic throughout these films uncovering a previously unknown strain of occult imagery in surrealist cinema It broadens the scope of the study of not only surrealist cinema but of surrealism across the art forms Surrealism Cinema and the Search for a New Myth will appeal to film scholars art historians and those interested in the impact of occultism on modern culture film and the arts
