Post Captain (Vol. Book 2) (Aubrey/Maturin Novels) Patrick O'Brian, 1990-08-17 If Jane Austen had written rousing sea yarns she would have produced something very close to the prose of Patrick O Brian Time It s 1802 The Treaty of Amiens has brought an end to the hostilities between Great Britain and France Captain Jack Aubrey and his friend naval surgeon Stephen Maturin are enjoying the respite in the English countryside besotted with two beautiful cousins Sophie Williams and Diana Villiers until Aubrey loses his fortune and they flee to France to escape his creditors While in France Napoleon smashes the Peace of Amiens and war begins anew Aubrey and Maturin now finding themselves behind enemy lines make their way back to England Maturin is sent to Spain on an intelligence gathering mission and the now solvent Aubrey assumes command of a strange warship pursuing his quarry straight into the mouth of a French held harbor Amidst the rollicking adventures at sea and mishaps on land Aubrey and Maturin s friendship is tested by their romantic entanglements with the cousins in this brilliant second installment of the epic series

The World of Patrick O'Brian Dean King, 2016-06-28 Four volumes of history and biography for fans of the Aubrey Maturin novels with lore on the Royal Navy and much more What is a sandgrouse and where does it live What are the medical properties of lignum vitae and how did Stephen Maturin use it to repair his viola Who is Adm Lord Keith and why is his wife so friendly with Capt Jack Aubrey More than any other contemporary author Patrick O Brian knew the past His twenty Aubrey Maturin novels beginning with Master and Commander 1969 are distinguished by deep characterization heart stopping naval combat and an attention to detail that enriches and enlivens his stories In the revised edition of A Sea of Words Dean King and his collaborators dive into Jack Aubrey s world In the revised edition of Harbors and High Seas King details not just where Aubrey and Maturin went but how they got there Packed with maps and illustrations from the greatest age of sail it is an incomparable reference for devotees of O Brian s novels and anyone who has dreamed of climbing aboard a warship as well as a captivating portrait of life on the sea during a time when nothing stood between man and ocean but grit daring and a few creaking planks of wood At the dawn of the nineteenth century the British navy was the mightiest instrument of war the world had ever known The Royal Navy patrolled the seas from India to the Caribbean connecting an empire with footholds in every corner of the earth Such a massive navy required the service of more than 100 000 men from officers to deckhands to surgeons Their stories are collected in Every Man Will Do His Duty The inspiration for the bestselling novels of Patrick O Brian and C S Forester these twenty two memoirs and diaries edited by Dean King provide a true portrait of life aboard British warships during one of the most significant eras of world history Patrick O Brian was well into his seventies when the world fell in love with his greatest creation the maritime adventures of Royal Navy Capt Jack Aubrey and ship s surgeon Stephen Maturin But despite his fame little detail was available about the life of the reclusive author whose mysterious past King uncovers in this groundbreaking biography King traces O Brian s personal history from his beginnings as a London born Protestant named Richard Patrick

Russ to his tortured relationship with his first wife and child to his emergence from World War II with the entirely new identity under which he would publish twenty volumes in the Aubrey Maturin series What King unearths is a life no less thrilling than the seafaring world of O Brian s imagination Patrick O Brian A Life Revealed is a penetrating and insightful examination of one of the modern world s most acclaimed historical novelists Back to the Best Books Marilyn Green Faulkner,2010-07-15 Improve your reading Improve your life Are you bored by bestsellers you can t remember a week later Is your book group ready for more meaningful discussions Have TV and movies got your brain on autopilot Back to the Best Books explores 36 great works of literature some that you know Twain Bronte and some you might not Undset Cronin that will bring you new insights about your own life Inside you ll find Jane Austen Looking for love in all the wrong places Betty Smith Recession lessons from the depression William Faulkner Road trips and self discovery Anne Tyler Putting the fun into dysfunctional Charles Dickens Changing the world one child at a timeThe perfect guide for book groups students and casual readers who are ready to take it up a notch If you re feeling the need to get your brain in gear your relationships in order and your life on track then it s time to get Back to the Best Books Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children Ruskin Bond,2006-05 A comprehensive guide to fiction in English for readers aged four to sixteen The Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children is divided into three sections to suit every age group It has entries listing over 1000 books and is divided into categories with cross references so that children can read more in genres they like It includes both classics and the best of contemporary works and books from all over the world With an introduction by Ruskin Bond India s best known children s writer in English The Puffin Good Reading Guide is an invaluable resource for children who love books as well as for parents and friends looking for the right book for the young people in their lives Nelson's Navy in Fiction and Film Sue Parrill,2009-12-21 This book provides summaries and analyses of more than 250 novels and nearly 30 films and examines the extent to which they accurately reflect the history mores and manners of the period and the extent to which they reveal the ideas and attitudes of their authors and of the periods in which they were written Particular emphasis is placed on the nature and importance of the war at sea for the British and on the role of famous naval officers such as Nelson Pellew Duncan Smith and Cochrane in the defeat of Napoleon The New York Times Magazine ,1993-05 From Bilateralism to Community Interest Ulrich Fastenrath,2011 This festschrift dedicated to Judge Bruno Simma traces the development of international law from regulating bilateral state to state relationships towards strengthening the entire international community by protecting human security the global environment and human rights It provides both theoretical and practical insights into these sometimes conflicting goals their basis in international law and the role played by international institutions charged with upholding these values and interests The work thus examines the mechanism by which international law contributes to the realization not only of individual State interests but the interests of the international community as a whole From this vantage point it looks at the various functions that international law fulfills in the international community from law making and institution building towards adjudication and the securing of human rights Taken together the contributions to this book paints a detailed but nevertheless comprehensive picture of the realization of community interest in contemporary international law As professor and judge Bruno Simma has contributed to all of these tasks providing ground breaking theoretical work serving in the International Law Commission and in the Committee for Economic Social and Cultural Rights and finally as a judge at the International Court of Justice in The Hague The three introductory chapters express this unity of life and work
