Hanley, 1998 From the 1890s to the 1920s the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age can today be considered works of art Early in the century Hot Springs was among the most noted resorts in the nation Its Victorian wonders drew thousands of visitors to partake in the hot mineral waters that bubbled from the earth In the words written on one card in 1910 Many people of wealth are here from Chicago and New York Uncle Billy went to the horse show ball at the Eastman Hotel with an ex wife of a millionaire Andrew Carnegie and young Jay Gould were at the ball Showcased in this fascinating collection are over two hundred postcards from 1900 to 1960 The images are accompanied by the actual penned messages of visitors and extensively researched historical facts The Publishers Weekly, 1998 John Heartfield and the Agitated Image Andrés Mario Zervigón, 2012-12-01 Working in Germany between the two world wars John Heartfield born Helmut Herzfeld 1891 1968 developed an innovative method of appropriating and reusing photographs to powerful political effect As a pioneer of modern photomontage he sliced up mass media photos with his iconic scissors and then reassembled the fragments into compositions that utterly transformed the meaning of the originals In John Heartfield and the Agitated Image Andr s Mario Zervig n explores this crucial period in the life and work of a brilliant radical artist whose desire to disclose the truth obscured by the mainstream press and imperial propaganda made him a de facto prosecutor of Germany s visual culture Zervig n charts the evolution of Heartfield s photomontage from an act of antiwar resistance into a formalized and widely disseminated political art in the Weimar Republic Appearing on everything from campaign posters to book covers the photomonteur s notorious pictures challenged well worn assumption and correspondingly walked a dangerous tightrope over the political social and cultural cauldron that was interwar Germany Zervig n explains how Heartfield s engagement with montage arose from a broadly shared dissatisfaction with photography s capacity to represent the modern world The result was likely the most important combination of avant garde art and politics in the twentieth century A rare look at Heartfield s early and middle years as an artist and designer this book provides a new understanding of photography s role at this critical juncture in history Topeka Greg A. Hoots, 2010-09-20 The city of Topeka was founded on December 5 1854 by nine men who made camp by the Kansas River at what is today the intersection of First and Kansas Avenues During Kansas territorial days Topeka played a leading role in the Free State movement In 1858 Topeka was voted the Shawnee County seat and in 1859 secured the position of state capital at the final constitutional convention which took effect when Kansas achieved statehood in 1861 In the century and a half that followed Topeka grew as America grew developing a rich history Now home to 125 000 citizens Topeka has become one of the leading metropolitan cities in the Midwest Images of

America Topeka celebrates the city's history in photographs drawing on the vast photographic collection of the Kansas State Historical Society as well as other private and public collections Postcards David Prochaska, Jordana Mendelson, 2010 Examines postcards as images that are carriers of text and textual correspondence that circulate images across boundaries of class gender nationality and race Discusses issues concerning the concrete practices of production consumption collection and appropriation Commemorating Race and Empire in the First World War Centenary Ben Wellings, Shanti

Sumartojo, 2018-09-27 The Great War for Civilisation was more than a European conflict It was a global war spanning Asia Africa and beyond Drawing on original archival research in several languages and employing multidisciplinary frames of analysis this innovative volume explores how race and empire were commemorated during the First World War Centenary
