Postcards From The Underground Portraits Of The Beat Era:

Postcards from the Underground ,1999-09 In 1965 Larry Keenan was asked by the poet and playwright Michael McClure if we would like to photograph a group of his friends Asking McClure who his friends were Kennan was astounded when he listed the names that included Lawrence Ferlinghetti Allen Ginsberg Bruce Conner Neal Cassady and Ken Kesey He had studied the works of these groundbreaking poets writers and artists and recognized the significance of this opportunity Twenty one years old Keenan spent over a year documenting the last days of the Beat Generation with a borrowed 35mm camera photographing the Beats in their homes and with their families and friends His portraits constitute a unique chronology and reportage of this era and many of these photos have since become iconic images that represent a literary generation Here in this book of 20 postcards is a timeless rendering of the spirit of the Beats This slim volume produced by City Lights Publishers offers the reader a taste of Keenan s astounding work in post card sized bites Especially riveting are the shots of Bob Dylan Michael McClure and Allen Ginsberg taken in the alley behind City Lights Bookstore in 1965 before Dylan s San Francisco show with Robbie Robertson and The Hawks Also of note is the shot of Neal Cassady in front of the mirror shaving and the wonderful photo of the late Allen Ginsberg sharing a private moment with Dennis Hopper Keenan s work always pristine and often over looked provides a personal glimpse into the magical cool and troubled heart of the 1960s Jacob Aiello Electric Review Larry Keenan was a recipient of the prized Phelan Award for his fine art photography He was also an award winning advertising and corporate photographer who specialized in combining the traditional medium of photography with contemporary digital techniques His photographs are in museums and private collections throughout the world and were exhibited in the Whitney Museum s Beat Culture and the New America and the Smithsonian Institute s REBELS Artists and Poets of the 50s He died in 2012 at the age of 68 The Beats Nancy Grace,2021-03-11 This survey of the many little magazines carrying the Beat message is impressive in its coverage drawing attention to the importance of their paratextual content in providing valuable socio political context The collection contains a range of insightful close readings astute contextualizing and inventive lateral pedagogical thinking charting the transformation of the Beat scene from its free wheeling self help heady revolutionary 1960 s days to its contemporary position as an increasingly respectable component of the curriculum The Beats A Teaching Companion is successful on a number of levels it is a noteworthy contribution to the ever expanding field of Beat studies and more broadly cultural studies and it is a collection that at its best gives hope that in referring to its ideas the inspired teacher may still be able to enlarge the lives of their students John Shapcott Keele University In the Heart of the Heart of Another Country Etel Adnan,2005-09 A mosaic of lyrical vignettes at once deeply personal and political set against the turbulent backdrop of Arab Western relations Adnan writes Contrary to what is usually believed it is not general ideas and grandiose unfolding of great events that impress the mind during times of heightened historic upheavals but rather the uninterrupted flow of little experiences observations disturbances small

ecstasies or barely perceptible discouragements that make up day to day living Etel Adnan a Lebanese American poet painter and essayist lives in Paris Beirut and the San Francisco Bay Area Among her books the novel Sitt Marie Rose is considered a classic of Middle Eastern literature She has been a powerful voice for compassion and empowerment in feminist and antiwar movements

History as Mystery Michael Parenti, 2016-08-22 In a lively challenge to mainstream history Michael Parenti does battle with a number of mass marketed historical myths He shows how history's victors distort and suppress the documentary record in order to perpetuate their power and privilege And he demonstrates how historians are influenced by the professional and class environment in which they work Pursuing themes ranging from antiquity to modern times from the Inquisition and Joan of Arc to the anti labor bias of present day history books History as Mystery demonstrates how past and present can inform each other and how history can be a truly exciting and engaging subject Michael Parenti always provocative and eloquent gives us a lively as well as valuable critique of orthodoxy posing as history Howard Zinn author of A People's History of the United States Deserves to become an instant classic Bertell Ollman author of Dialectical Investigations Those who keep secret the past and lie about it condemn us to repeat it Michael Parenti unveils the history of falsified history from the early Christian church to the present a fascinating darkly revelatory tale Daniel Ellsberg author of The Pentagon Papers Solid if surely controversial stuff Kirkus
